At OPEC meet

Saudi Arabia urges delay in price hike

DOHA, Qatar (AP) — The Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) opened a price-fixing meeting today with only conservative Saudi Arabia, the cartel's biggest producer, opposed to an increase in the price of crude oil.

The Saudi oil minister, Sheik Ahmed Zaki Yamani, said on his arrival in Doha that his country favors postponing the increase for six more months because the world economy is still too shaky. The Saudis previously said they would agree to a "reasonable increase" of less than 10 per cent in the price of $11.51 for a barrel of benchmark crude.

The ministers of the 13 nations who supply 80 per cent of the oil imported by the world's non-Communist nations met behind bullet-proof shutters in the banquet hall of a luxurious hotel beside the Persian Gulf.

Indonesian Oil Minister Mohammed Sadli, the current chairman of OPEC, opened the conference with a reminder to the ministers that their decisions would "affect the state of health of the world, not only now but for some time to come."

"We hope to convince the members of OPEC of our views," Yamani said. "We believe we have a strong view, but we never come with a position we can't change."

Yamani said his government has found that the trend of international economic recovery "is not as strong as we hoped to have." He noted that Saudi Arabian light crude is the benchmark oil on which OPEC's price structure is based, and he commented: "I don't

Landmark gives way to years, disuse

Washington Hotel demolition begins

A wrecker's ball smashed into a rear wall of the former Washington Inn Hotel Tuesday as demolition crews began razing the 65-year-old Washington C.H. landmark.

The three-story structure, which once housed a YMCA before it was converted to a hotel and restaurant, is owned by local realtor and auctioneer Frank J. Weade.

Weade, who purchased the building at a sheriff's sale in 1973, said he presently has no definite plans for the site at the corner of Market and Main streets once the demolition is completed.

"The building was obsolete and I had no use for it in its present state," Weade commented. He said he planned to confer with consultants to discuss future plans for the site.

A spokesman for the Cartwright Refuse Removal Co. said it would probably take approximately 30 days for the structure to be completely leveled.

The demolition work was begun at the rear of the building where the YMCA gymnasium was located. A basement swimming pool, last used in the early 1950s, was slowly being filled in by the rubble.

The half-block-long hotel, restaurant and a health spa housed inside the structure were closed this summer. The owner held four auctions during the summer months to dispose of the interior furnishings.

DEMOLITION UNDERWAY — Wrecking crews began tearing down the walls of the old Washington Inn Hotel building, Market and Main streets, Tuesday. The demolition of three-story, half-block-long building is expected to take 30 days. The building was constructed in 1911.

Gilmore gets latest date with death

PROVO, Utah (AP) — Gary Mark Gilmore hopes the third time will prove the charm when he gets his latest date with death from the judge who has sentenced him twice before.

The 36-year-old Death Row inmate, eating again and pleased that the U.S. Supreme Court lifted his stay of execution, had a scheduled court appearance today before District Judge Robert J. Bullock, who sentenced him to face a firing squad on Nov. 15 and Dec. 7.

But Gilmore's mother and at least one group opposed to capital punishment hoped legal action would once again keep him from fulfilling his wish to die swiftly rather than spend his life in jail for killing a Provo motel clerk last July.

Lawyers for Bessie Gilmore of Milwaukie, Ore., on Tuesday asked the U.S. Supreme Court to reconsider its Monday decision lifting its stay.

Shirley Pedler, executive director of the Utah American Civil Liberties Union, said the ACLU was considering court action to stop the execution.

Attorney Tom Jones, fired last month by Gilmore, is seeking a stay of execution in the state Supreme Court. The ACLU has asked to intervene in that action as a friend of the court.

Gilmore, who has spent 18 years in penal institutions, asked his lawyers to drop a motion filed last week seeking his release on a legal technicality — that the state didn't execute him within 60 days of sentencing as required by Utah law.

Attorney Ronald Stanger said Gilmore told him he broke a fast he had started on Nov. 19 because he was happy about the court ruling and because "I got a mite hungry."

Gilmore stopped eating when authorities wouldn't allow him to telephone his girlfriend, Nicole Barrett.

Bulletin

PROVO, Utah (AP) — A judge gave Gary Gilmore his third date with death today, ordering him shot at sunrise Jan. 17. Gilmore said he would ask to be released from prison because of the delay.

More than 300 children, ages 6 to 10, are expected to attend the annual party; half of them from the Washington C.H. School District and half from the Miami Trace School District.

F. Paul Souther, chairman of the project, said children are selected to attend the party by the Fayette County Health Department staff and teachers in the Washington C.H. and Miami Trace school districts.

Treats and oranges will be distributed to each child in addition to gloves and socks.

Santa Claus, who will arrive at the party at 2:30 p.m., will give each a new toy and some children will receive envelopes containing certificates for clothing which the Fayette County Health Department has requested.

The children in the Miami Trace School District will be transported to the party by PTO members and teachers, and the Washington C.H. youngsters will be brought to the party by American Legion and auxiliary members.

Souther said letters have been sent to several organizations requesting contributions to help finance the party. Additional contributions can be sent to Souther, 421 W., Court St.

The Christmas party has been an annual event for the past 29 years. The late Dr. Charles M. Pfersick founded the event while serving as commander of the Legion post 28 years ago. Souther became chairman two years ago.

Legionnaires and others wishing to assist with the party should report to the American Legion hall by 1:30 p.m.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A productive but partisan (two-year legislative session, dominated by majority Democrats, has concluded here with final adjournment of the 111th General Assembly.

State senators approved 109 of Gov. James A. Rhodes' appointments, rejected one, and failed to override a Rhodes veto before calling it quits Tuesday. Thirty minutes later at 2:25 p.m., the House also adjourned "sine die," without setting a future date, and the 1975-76 session was dissolved.

The 112th General Assembly convenes Jan. 3.

"It was hectic, at times chaotic," admitted Senate Majority Leader Oliver Ocasek, D-28 Akron, "but when history is written, I think it will be the most productive general assembly." Senate Minority Leader Michael J. Maloney, R-7 Cincinnati, has a different assessment. "Thank God It's over," he said.

Maloney agreed that a number of significant bills had been enacted, but said achievements were "overshadowed by the totally unnecessary high level of partisanship."

An equal yield formula for state subsidies to schools, reform of drug and utility rate laws and medical malpractice protection are among enactments viewed as major legislation of the session.

Most of the final session was devoted to Senate confirmations, which included two Rhodes cabinet members: Highway Safety Director Robert Charamonte, and Workmen's Compensation Administrator Robert C. Daugherty. Both men got the assignments from Rhodes recently, as a result of controversies in the two agencies.

Robert Kinney lost his $30,638-a-year post as commissioner of tax equalization by a 20-10 vote, as Democrats prevailed in a straight party line vote.

Kinney stood accused by Sen. Tony Hall, D-6 Dayton, of providing statistical information that was used in a campaign ad by Hall's opponent to suggest that the senator was responsible for tax increases.

"They inferred in so many words that me, Senator Hall, had a lot to do with raising taxes in Montgomery County to the tune of $20 million," Hall said.

Maloney, who defended Kinney, was prime sponsor of the 1972 property reappraisal bill that has resulted in property tax increases.

Rhodes' executive assistant, Thomas J. Moyer, told newsmen "the bottom line question is whether the (Kinney) information was public, factual information, and the answer to that is yes."

Kinney was the fourth Rhodes administration official to be ousted by the Senate.

Only one other appointment, Nursing Home Advisory Commission member Herbert Arfman of Salem, drew debate. Sen. Marigene Valiquette, D-11 Toledo, said Arfman should be rejected because "he has stated flatly that the state standards for nursing homes are too high." The former Columbiana County judge survived by a bare majority.

The other 109 appointees were approved unanimously in a bloc vote.

The Senate failed by one vote to override Rhodes' veto of a bill that would have set up a legislative oversight committee to keep a rein on state agency rule-making power. Rep. Thomas P. Gilmartin, D-57 Youngstown, the sponsor, said he would introduce the bill again next year to give the legislature some authority over bureaucratic regulations.

The House had no major business on the agenda, but Speaker Vernal G. Riffe Jr., D-89 New Boston, used the occasion to praise the legislative record and point out that voters had returned Democrats with larger majorities.

In the upcoming 1977-78 session, Democrats will have enough votes in both houses to override any gubernatorial veto without Republican help. They were one vote short of a veto-proof majority in the House during the past session.

"It's not a perfect record," Riffe said, "but we are going to improve on it next year."

Next year will happen in Columbus without two familiar figures in Statehouse corridors, Rep. Ethel Swanbeck, R-72 Huron, dean of House Republicans, and Sen. Robert T. Secrest, D-20 Cambridge, a veteran of

Whiteside resigns from post

Huntington Bank names new president

Donald A. Leibee, of Westerville, was elected president and chief executive officer of the Huntington Bank of Washington C.H. by the board of directors at its meeting Tuesday.

Leibee's election followed the resignation of Richard E. Whiteside as president of the bank effective Jan. 3.

The announcement of Leibee's appointment was made by Ronald K. Cornwell, chairman of the bank's board of directors. "We are very pleased to welcome Mr. Leibee as president of the bank, and look forward to a challenging and innovative period in the years ahead," said Cornwell.

Leibee has been an assistant vice president of Huntington Bancshares, Inc., of Columbus, since 1974. Prior to joining the multi-bank holding company, Leibee was with the Comptroller of the Currency. He joined the comptroller's office in 1967 as an assistant national bank examiner and in 1972 was promoted to national bank examiner within the Fourth National Bank Region with headquarters in Cleveland.

"Coming to Washington C.H. is a pleasure," said Leibee, "and I hope to become actively involved in the affairs of the Fayette County Area and to help residents achieve their financial goals."

Leibee is a graduate of Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, Ky., and a native of Hardy, Ky. He is also a graduate of the School for Commissioned National Bank Examiners and a graduate of the National Commercial Lending School at the University of Oklahoma where he earned the coveted designation of certified commercial lending officer.

Leibee and his wife, Redia, have two children, Lisa and Donald L. They will

Carter sets more appointments

PLAINS, Ga. (AP) — Having filled three Cabinet posts, President-elect Carter is expected to announce Thursday his choice for at least one more post, probably secretary of agriculture.

Rep. Bob Bergland, D-Minn., a farm operator and political ally of Vice President-elect Walter F. Mondale, was widely seen as the likely choice to head the Agriculture Department.

Carter spokesman Jody Powell emphasized Tuesday that Carter's next appointments will not necessarily all involve Cabinet secretaries. Powell said simply they would be Cabinet-level posts and said there would be at least two announcements.

Another possibility was an announcement of Carter's reported decision to name Charles Schultz, budget director in the Johnson administration, as chairman of his Council of Economic Advisers.

Meanwhile, Rep. Andrew Young, D-Ga., said he has been offered the post as U.S. ambassador to the United Nations but that he hasn't made up his mind about whether to take the job.

Carter and several top aides cautioned newsmen again Tuesday against advance speculation about choices for top appointments.

Earlier, Jane Cahill Pfeiffer, a former IBM vice president, had asked that she not be considered for secretary of commerce, saying a Washington job would have parted her from her husband, and because she had undergone a thyroid cancer operation less than a year ago that left her without "confidence in my own sustained energy level."

At his Tuesday news conference, Carter said he will nominate W. Michael Blumenthal, chairman of the Bendix Corp., as treasury secretary and Rep. Brock Adams, D-Wash., as transportation secretary.

Carter said he probably will announce, even before his inauguration, an economic program aimed at creating jobs and, quite likely, reducing taxes. He said he favors job-creating programs supplemented by tax breaks.

The President-elect also disclosed that Vance has joined Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger in trying to persuade members of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) from imposing steep oil price increases at a price-fixing meeting in the Middle East this week.

The President-elect ducked a question about pay raises for top federal employees, saying the matter rests on outgoing President Ford's desk.

On other topics, Carter said: —He has not given sufficient study to possible duplication of offensive weapons systems to decide whether defense spending might be curbed by eliminating some of them.

—He is confident Congress will give him authority, probably by the end of February, to draw up broad government reorganization plans that would go into effect automatically unless vetoed by the Senate or House.

—The government faces a near record deficit of $60 billion to $65 billion from the 1977 budget he will inherit from President Ford, but he declined to say what size deficit he might face in his first year in office.

Christmas spending to determine policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The jingling of cash registers, not sleigh bells, will be the key to a successful Christmas season for the incoming Carter administration.

President-elect Carter and his advisers have put Christmas retail sales at the top of the list of economic statistics that will influence their decision on whether to recommend a tax break next year.

Retail sales have been disappointing since early in the year. And when Americans stop buying, businesses stop producing and that means fewer jobs on production lines.

There are other statistics this month that will count in Carter's decision, including November industrial production figures that will be released late today.

There also will be figures on housing starts and personal income, both on Thursday, corporate profits on Monday, consumer prices on Dec. 21, and the index of leading economic indicators on Dec. 29.

At an Atlanta news conference Tuesday, Carter said he will meet with his key advisers soon after Christmas to decide on what to do about the economy. He said he probably will announce the decision before he takes office Jan. 20.

If things remain as they are now, he indicated, help will definitely be needed. He noted that with unem-

Utility firms react to cheating charges

By The Associated Press

Federal tax breaks stimulate new development, hold down rates for consumers and "are perfectly legal," representatives of six Ohio private utilities agreed in response to consumer groups' allegations that customers are being "ripped off."

The Environmental Action Foundation and the National Consumer Information Center reported this week that the six Ohio utilities charged consumers for nearly $29 million in taxes in 1975 which the utilities didn't have to pay.

The two groups said Dayton Power & Light Co. received $9.1 million in tax overcharges. Amounts listed for other Ohio firms were Cincinnati Gas & Electric, $8.2 million; Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co., $2.3 million; Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co., $5.8 million; Ohio Edison Co., $657,957 and Toledo Edison, $2 million.

A Cincinnati Gas & Electric Co. official referred to so-called tax "overcharges" as "perfectly legitimate tax credits" given to utilities and other companies as an incentive for investment in "job creating capital expenditures such as a new power plant."

"These tax credits are taken by companies like ours and others to invest in capital projects," the spokesman said. "It amounts to a 10 per cent tax break given a company and the benefits are eventually passed back to the consumer over a period of years."

Officials at Dayton Power & Light said the company pays the lowest legal amount "to minimize utility rates charged to its customers. It also takes advantage of all tax incentives which reduce the rate base and thereby reduce rate increases."

Robert E. Sisinger, vice president of corporate affairs for C&COE said the tax laws were created by Congress to give utilities and other businesses certain tax credits to encourage development and stimulate the economy.

"Every citizen of the United States who pays an income tax takes advantage of certain tax credits to reduce the amount of federal income tax he has to pay," Sisinger said.

A spokesman for CEI said utilities are "permitted by law" to take certain tax deductions such as those allowed for accelerated depreciation and investment tax credits. "These deductions, available to all businesses, represent a recognition by Congress of the need to stimulate investment and to help promote national recovery and employment," he said.

Donald Nicholson, Toledo Edison's vice president of finance, said it is "sheer nonsense to try to contend that complying with federal law is somehow improper or illegal." He accused the two Washington-based groups of being "ignorant of the laws or deliberately trying to mislead the public."

"What is true is that electric companies apply provisions of the tax law which are available to all types of businesses," Nicholson said. An Ohio Edison spokesman said the utility had not seen the report, but "it could be pointed out that this is more or less an annual event by the Environmental Action Foundation."

establish residence in the Washington C.H. area.

Whiteside, 520 E. Temple St., president of the bank for the past nine years, said he plans to pursue personal interests and investments.

"I plan to devote much of my time to farm management and real estate appraising," said Whiteside in commenting on his resignation from the bank.

"The bank has enjoyed unparalleled growth during Mr. Whiteside's administration," said Cornwell. "The Huntington Bank has grown to be the largest bank in the county while Mr. Whiteside has been president," he continued.

Whiteside has been active in community and banking affairs since being elected president of the bank in 1967. He is a past president of the Washington C.H. Rotary Club, the Washington C.H. Area Chamber of Commerce and of the Parent-Teachers association. He is also past president of the Fayette Area Bankers Association and a member of the agriculture committee of the Ohio Bankers Association. He is a member of the Grace United Methodist Church.

The facilities of the bank, located at the corner of Fayette and Court streets, have been greatly expanded since Whiteside joined the organization. In 1970, more than 3,000 persons attended an open house for the remodeled and enlarged bank building. In 1971 an annual breakfast for farm and business customers of the bank was organized.

Whiteside was affiliated with the Federal Land Bank Association before joining the Huntington Bank and is a recognized authority in farm real estate appraisals.

Carter win across U.S. proves thin

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — Jimmy Carter's victory margin over President Ford was a bare two per cent of the more than 81.5 million votes cast in the presidential balloting Nov. 2.

Based on certified or official vote totals from all 50 states and the District of Columbia, Carter won 40,827,292 votes to Ford's 39,146,157 — a 1,681,135-vote edge.

The minor party presidential candidates were led by independent Eugene McCarthy, who won 745,346 votes.

The other former Georgia governor in the presidential race, American party nominee Lester Maddox, garnered 170,086 votes. Libertarian party candidate Roger MacBride won 171,912 votes.

The survey of certified results from all the states found 81,518,720 Americans cast a vote for president, with all those who voted for minor party candidates and write-in votes included. This does not include at least 200,000 citizens who did not vote in the presidential race but cast ballots in other races.

Although McCarthy and the other minor party candidates did not accumulate votes equal to Carter's national margin, McCarthy's vote total in four states was greater than the difference between the two major candidate's votes.

In Oregon, Oklahoma and Maine, McCarthy's total was greater than Ford's margin over Carter.

In Ohio, the former senator's tally was larger than Carter's victory margin.

Stock list up again

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock prices moved higher again today as Tuesday's closing rally spilled over into early trading.

After the opening trades, the Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was up nearly two points.

Advancing issues took an early lead over declines on the New York Stock Exchange.

Indications that oil-rich Saudi Arabia will seek a six-month freeze on oil prices at this week's meeting of oil exporting countries and statements from President-elect Carter that the U.S. is actively trying to moderate any increase have fed Wall Street's hopes for a favorable OPEC decision on oil prices.

Lower interest rates which are a potential boost for the economy are also a factor helping the market, brokers said.

Early prices of stocks included Pacific Gas & Electric, up 1/4 to 23 3/4; Occidental Petroleum $3.60 preferred, up 1/4 to 72 1/2; and Pan American World Airways, ahead 1/4 to 5 1/2.

On Tuesday, the Dow Jones average rose 6.39 to 980.63.

The NYSE composite index showed a gain of .24 at 56.59 and advancing issues held a narrow lead over declines among issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

Turnover reached 25.13 million shares.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market value index was ahead .37 at 103.73.

Danger of 'bought' elections

When the Supreme Court threw out the campaign financing law's curb on how much of his or her own money a candidate for national office could spend, the action was applauded by some as a blow for free speech. This it may have been, but unfortunately the ruling had a deplorable side effect.

With no restriction on spending, a wealthy candidate willing to pour personal funds into the campaign has an obvious advantage over less well-heeled competitors. In extreme cases, such a candidate can virtually "buy" a seat in the House or Senate.

The matter is not an academic question. The past election campaign provided one notable example of conspicuous spending by a candidate. Whether or not it can fairly be said that H. John Heinz III of Pittsburgh "bought" the Senate seat he will soon be sworn in for, he did spend an enormous sum on his campaign for that office.

Heinz's final report under the campaign finance disclosure law shows that he spent a total of $2,930,000. According to the Associated Press, "All but $540,000 of that came from his own pocket." Heinz himself, one concludes,

Kissinger's last waltz

There was an almost pathetic quality about Chairman Kissinger's Philippine caper, but it does once more demonstrate the vitality of Karl Marx's insight that history repeats itself: first as tragedy, then as farce. The tragedy, of course, was Southeast Asia where Kissinger developed his sleight of hand, his talent for alleged "breakthroughs," and his devoted fan club also known as shelled out a whopping $2,390,000 to assure his election.

It may be that Heinz would have won even had he not spent more than twice what his opponent did - and vastly more of his own money. No one can say. The episode does dramatize the need for a new congressional look at this aspect of campaign spending reform.

Ways must be found to place some restraint on personal financing of campaigns. Until that is done there will always be the chance of some wealthy candidate's "buying" an election he would otherwise not have won.

United States commitments are tucked away in various foreign offices. And what private reservations may exist on various public commitments. For example, when the Chairman took President Ford to meet Brezhnev in Vladivostok, it was probably fair to say the Leader of the Free World did not know the difference between MIRCs, MARVs, and Margarine.

The President, however, initiated an agreement on strategic weapons limitations which was then provided with a post script by Kissinger explaining what we believed it meant. Brezhnev, when queried on this American gloss, said in effect that the Soviet Union was not bound by anybody else's unilateral interpretations.

The main reason the SALT II talks have been such a shambles is that the Vladivostok "agreement" was a fake, a species of "motherhood" resolution which provided no specific guidance on minor technicalities like cruise missiles and other items which in fact constitute the essence of strategic arms policy. To use a concrete example, if you are trying to determine whether the "Backfire" plane should be included in Soviet strategic delivery systems, a key question is: Are they equipped with aerial refueling cones? Similarly, can the new SS-20 missile, which the U.S.S.R. considers a tactical system, be easily converted to intercontinental use by the addition of a third-stage rocket?

Enough of this inconsequential detail - poor Cy will have to worry about it. The point is that for eight years, first as Nixon's subordinate and then as Ford's mentor, a virtuoso con man has carried on American foreign policy with mirrors. My guess is that any discussion of the Shanghai Communiqué between the Chinese Nationalists on Taiwan and the Communists in Peking would lead to some vigorous words on "inscrutable Americans." Admittedly ambiguity has decided value in international politics, so there is nothing wrong with leaving Peking and Taipei confused. But when you leave your own team baffled, the time has come to shut down the merry-go-round.

But, like the card-sharp who cheats at solitaire just to keep in practice, Henry Kissinger found the "breakthrough" game addictive. Not content with the mess, currently playing in Geneva, that resulted from his last heroic performance in Southern Africa, he took the inauguration of Jose Lopez Portillo as Mexico's new President as a trampoline for bouncing over the U.S.-Philippine impasse. Meeting Philippine Foreign Minister Carlos Romulo at the Mexican festivities, and finding the latter in a convivial mood, the Chairman on the spot settled the complicated, and vital, issue of our base rights at Clark Field and Subic Bay.

Now Romulo is a nice elder statesman - it seems to me he was around when I was in high school - but he was roughly as much influence with Philippine President Ferdinand Marcos as I do. Marcos is a very tough man busy maintaining order (by martial law) in a society that seems to have inherited the worst of both the Spanish and American traditions. (When I was last in Manila, politicians were routinely accompanied by bodyguards armed with M-16s) One of the reasons Romulo is Foreign Minister is a naive faith in democracy, which might get him in trouble if he spent much time at home.

To make the story short, Kissinger's last waltz was over before it began. It was comparable to making a deal for Greek bases with the exiled King Constantine. Marcos probably burned Romulo's cable: He's going to deal with the new landlord, not the outgoing tenants.

Expense statements due, Brown says

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) - Post-election contribution and expenditure statements must be filed by 4 p.m. Friday, Secretary of State Ted Brown said Tuesday.

In addition to the candidate's campaign committee, opposition committees, political parties, and committees formed to sponsor or oppose issues must file reports with the secretary of state.

Brown said committees exempted from filing a pre-election report because they received or spent less than $1,000 still must file the latter report to reflect all receipts and expenditures through the course of their campaigns.

The report must represent all transactions through the seventh day before it is filed, Brown said.

Use of CB alarms could curb thefts

By DENNIS A. ECKERT
Associated Press Writer

Owning a Citizen's Band radio these days has become an invitation to a ripoff by burglars. But resourceful CBers are turning to a variety of alarm systems.

The best security against theft, of course, is having nothing worth stealing. But once you've invested in a CB set it only makes sense to protect it.

More manufacturers than ever are turning out alarm systems with different approaches to theft prevention. How well you understand what you need could make a crucial difference to either holding onto that two-way radio or seeing it go.

A good burglar alarm should keep away that burglar, true, but if he wants your set that much then there's nothing to stop him if he has enough determination and skill.

Therefore, whether you design your own system or purchase a ready-made one, you should concentrate on a system that activates those things burglars hate most: lights and noisemakers.

A good system should have flashing lights and sirens. Some of the more sophisticated systems even transmit an alarm to a small receiver that can be clipped to your belt or stashed in your purse.

Most alarm systems have some sort of noisemaker - horns, mechanical or electronic sirens or bells - but not many CBers have given much thought to flashing the lights already on your car.

If your car has been broken into and it's sitting in a crowded parking lot at night, most people wanting to help probably won't be able to locate it just by the alarm noise alone in time to do any good. Even sounding your horn won't attract too many people because most of us have heard enough stuck horns.

But there's another hitch to just using your horn to warn of a break-in. The horn wasn't designed to be left on continuously so it soon will overheat and burn out.

CBers can get around this by buying a simple relay for less than two dollars that will turn the horn on and off, attracting almost certain attention. Or if you car has dual horns, you can simply connect the relay to alternate the horns off and on.

You can draw attention to your car when the burglar has made his attack by installing another relay to turn on the four-way emergency flashers. Or add another relay to turn on the brakelights too. And you can find one that will turn headlights on and off, either alternately or simultaneously, or flash them on high and low beam.

Dear Abby:

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

Who sparks those office parties?

DEAR ABBY: With Christmas coming soon, the same old problem for many of us wives is the Christmas office party-with no spouses invited!

After quite a few years, I realize now, it's the WOMEN who promote these affairs. I honestly believe that most men don't care for these office parties, but the women engineer everything. They get the men to sign up for those catered lunches, which now begins at 11:30 a.m. and goes on forever. They get them to agree to exchanging gifts. Anything just to get them to commit themselves.

The men go because if they don't, the other men will say they are henpecked. What's your opinion, Abby?

AGAINST CHRISTMAS PARTIES

DEAR AGAINST: More and more large companies are making Christmas parties a "family affair." Married employees are free to bring their spouses, and single ones may bring a date. In offices where mates and dates are not welcome, you can be sure a vote was taken, and the majority ruled. No one is forced to go to an office party. And that "henpecked" excuse is only good for chickens.

DEAR ABBY: I have a boyfriend (he's no "boy," he's a 45-year-old man) who has needed to see a dentist for at least three years that I've known about. His teeth are in terrible shape. Some are so rotten they are crumbling, and he has large spaces in his mouth where he's lost teeth and never had them replaced.

He even gets terrible toothaches and headaches because of the miserable shape his mouth is in. Yet he refuses to go to a dentist. He has made up all sorts of excuses, saying he's too busy, his dentist has a three-month waiting list, etc. Finally, he told me he can't stand pain, and he can't take novocaine.

He looks awful, and it can't be good for his health. How do I get him to a dentist? I love him. He's too big, or I'd drug him and drag him there.

DESPERATE

DEAR DESPERATE: Forget the drugging and dragging, and turn to educating. Ask your dentist for written material on the new methods of painless dentistry.

If neither doctor nor dentist can impress upon your friend the importance of dental care, point out the futility in loving a man whose health is going downhill because of needless fear and ignorance.

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow in my early 60s. I live with my sister and her husband, but I am financially independent and pay my fair share.

When my sister and her husband are invited to someone's home for dinner, they say to me: "The So and So's have invited us to their home for dinner, and they said to bring Edith along if she's not doing anything."

Abby, would you consider that a proper invitation? When I tell my sister that I don't, she says, "It's good enough. People don't send engraved invitations for dinner."

Abby, would you accept one of those "bring Edith" invitations or not?

EDITH

DEAR EDITH: A "bring Edith" invitation is more than most widows who live with their sisters receive. I appreciate your sensitivity, but if I were you, I'd go and have a good time.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self addressed envelope, please.

White Oak Grove Methodist Church setting for marriage

White Oak Grove Methodist Church was the setting for the wedding of Mrs. Julie Wright Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wright, 12 Hali Drive, and Thomas R. Payton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Payton, 6065 Miami Trace Rd. SW.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Randy Lowe at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 2.

Music by the Country Knights before the wedding and accompanying the groom as he sang selections that were meaningful to him and his bride, enhanced the ceremony.

The bride wore an old-fashioned gown of ivory satin with high neckline and yoke of Cluny lace. The long sleeves ended in ruffle of lace over the hands. Her chapel train also had a deep ruffle edged in lace. Her bouquet was holly and one ivory rose. In her hair she wore a cap-like arrangement of holly, baby's breath and bridal satin ribbon.

in lace at the empire waist and long full sleeves. She wore a sprig of holly in her hair and carried holly and an ivory rose.

Panthers staff honored at party

The High School Youth Group of the South Side Church of Christ, was host at a carry-in dinner Saturday evening honoring the Miami Trace Football Team, the Cheerleaders, and the Coaches and their wives. The tables were decorated with black and white streamers down the center, gold napkins and place mats. Trophies and gold footballs decorated the speaker's table. Pictures of the team and other clippings from our local newspaper concerning their winning season and honors bestowed on them decorated the wall. A huge gold crown centered the display. A large panther with the current statistics listed beneath, also was in full view.

Following the bountiful dinner, Mr. Charles Starkey served as Master of Ceremonies, and introduced Mr. Danny Dodds, minister of the Greenfield Church of Christ, as speaker of the evening. Mr. Dodds compared the game of football to the game of life. He stressed that, just as the football player must condition his body, so must one be concerned about conditioning his body for service. The conditioning program should include: dedication, sacrifice, and, the Pittsburgh Steelers motto, "Whatever it takes."

Mr. Charles Richmond gave the closing prayer.

The kitchen committee was composed of Mrs. Ed Warning, Mrs. Fred Johnson, Mrs. Charles Starkey, Mrs. Paul Pettit, Mrs. Walt Smithson, Mrs. Thomas Riley, Mrs. Milton Dodds, Mrs. Grant Whiteside and Mrs. Frank Creamer. Miss Marilyn Creamer, Miss Terri Hidy, and Miss Jane Henry served as hostesses. Mrs. Paul Pettit was in charge of the decorating.

Persinger Hall setting for yule party

Persinger Hall of First Presbyterian Church was the setting for the Marguerite Class Christmas party. The large Christmas tree which had been decorated with original handmade ornaments and colorful lights, added to the festivities and atmosphere of the evening.

The sixteen members and the teacher, with one guest, Mrs. Alice Decker, were seated at long tables highlighted with poinsettias, red candles in green holders and clever handmade napkin rings as favors made by Mrs. Dorothy Dellinger, president.

Mrs. Marguerite Jenkins gave the invocation preceding the buffet dinner, which was served from a gaily decorated table. Mrs. Dellinger presided at the short business meeting and read "Christmas Comes at Different Times."

The report of the pecan sale was made by Mrs. William Rogers who stated there are a few pounds left. Reports were read and approved.

Mrs. Rogers gave the devotions reading "The Cradle" from Ideals - the Christmas Story, in the Book of Luke and closed with a prayer.

Following the Mizpah benediction, a Christmas exchange was enjoyed. The gift table was decorated with a small ceramic tree, poinsettia plant and a beautiful Santa Claus and Mrs. Claus dolls dressed in red velvet.

The officers were hostesses for the dinner - Mrs. Leonard Dellinger, Mrs. Frank Dellinger, and Mrs. Fulton Alkire.

The assistant officers will be hostesses for the January meeting.

Delta Kappa Gamma committed to Christmas traditions

The Delta Kappa Gamma Society met at the Terrace Lounge for the annual Christmas dinner meeting. Mrs. Elizabeth Fullerton gave the invocation.

After dinner, Mrs. Joan Rhoads, the program chairman, introduced the singing group, "Reflection," from Grace United Methodist Church. The group is composed of high school students from Miami Trace and Washington City Schools. Mrs. Rhoads and Mrs. Karen Burke are the co-directors. Christmas carols sung by the group had traditional words, but the music was contemporary. Among their songs were: "Joy to the World" and "Silent Night," with the music written by Joyce Eilers, who writes music for schools. "Tambourine Noel" featured Shelley Dove on the tambourine. Robin Brakeall sang, "Some Children See Him", and Johnny Bill Rhoads sang the old familiar song from World War II, "I'll Be Home for Christmas."

Mrs. Rhoads then asked members to think of traditions of the Christmas season that they especially remembered. Mrs. Althea Case gave an interesting account of the Wassailing parties which were given by her father, Mr. Carl J. Kay, who taught school for many years in Washington C.H. The parties began in 1924 and continued for many years with Mr. Kay's students and former students looking forward to the annual traditional event.

Miss Kathleen Davis remembered the Messiah concerts which were given for many years in the Methodist Church under the direction of Ralph Lloyd with Miss Marian Christopher at the organ.

Other members recalled Cherry Hill's tradition of putting stained glass pictures in the windows and lighting the trees on the lawn.

Other remembrances were of caroling, lighting real candles on the tree, and having a special German food which was made only at Christmas. The traditions one has meant so much because they recall memories of days that were important.

A gift exchange of handmade items was held following the program. Each member also brought a small gift of clothing for a child which is to be distributed by the Church Women United.

Mrs. Jane Riley, president, presented every member present with a lovely hand made calico wreath to be used as a Christmas tree decoration.

Jeff DAR holiday meeting held in the Cline home

Mrs. Charles Cline was hostess to the members of the William Horney Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution of Jeffersonville for the Christmas meeting.

Mrs. Eugene Avey introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Richard Crabtree, pastor of the Church of Christ, in Jeffersonville, who spoke on the subject "The Greatest Gift." Mr. Crabtree spoke of Christmas and as it draws near one thinks of a gift, but the birth of Jesus was the greatest gift from God to all, he said. He praised the chapter for their interest in the Memorial Day observance.

Mrs. Norman Wissinger, Regent, opened the meeting in ritualistic form assisted by the chaplain, Mrs. John Sheeley, Mrs. Otis Thompson, flag chairman, led the Pledge of Allegiance. The singing of the first stanza of the National Anthem was led by Mrs. Earl Glass, and The American's Creed was read by the group.

Mrs. Max Morrow read the president general's message; the state regent's message was read by Mrs. Glass.

Mrs. Avey, national defense chairman, read "Washington Crossing the Delaware" from the American Crisis, written by Thomas Paine, 1776.

Twenty were present and Mrs. Cline read minutes of the preceding meeting. In the absence of Mrs. Marvin Stockwell, treasurer, Mrs. Cline gave the report. On display were many interesting items for sale by the Junior DAR members, with Mrs. Mark Beam as chairman.

A Christmas greeting to the members was read from Mrs. Earl Hite.

The Bicentennial thought was read by Mrs. Louis Ulen, Mrs. C.S. Kelley, chairman of service for veteran patients, gave an interesting report of the many gifts from the chapter delivered to the veterans at the VA Hospital, Chillicothe, recently. Beanies, jiffy bags, softbacked books, magazines, Christmas gifts for the veterans and cookies. Those accompanying Mrs. Kelley were Mrs. Ulen, Mrs. Wissinger, Mrs. Harold Zimmerman, and Mrs. Harold Cline. They spent 25 hours at work in the gift shop at the hospital.

Delegates elected to Continental Congress, April, 1977, are Mrs. Wissinger, Regent, and Mrs. Richard Craig. Alternates are Mrs. Ulen, Mrs. Avey, Mrs. Charles Cline and Mrs. Harold Cline.

Hostesses assisting Mrs. Cline were Mrs. Harold Cline, Miss Helen Fuels, Mrs. Earl Hite, Mrs. Dale Horney, Mrs. Dale Kirk, Mrs. Francis Gillespie, Mrs. Howard Thompson, Mrs. Charles Mallow, Mrs. Harry Elliott and Mrs. Alex Smith.

During the social hour a dessert course suggestive of the Christmas season was served.

Mrs. Kenneth Miller and Mrs. Jack Flax of Washington C.H. and Mrs. Damon Merritt of Bloomington, motored to Wellston on Tuesday, where they were the guests of Mrs. George McKinniss at a luncheon held in the Wellston Presbyterian Church. They presented the program for the Women's Study Club and were assisted by William Werner of Wellston.

Following rural accident

Motorcyclist in 'fair' condition

Following his involvement in a Tuesday afternoon motorcycle accident, a Mount Sterling man is listed in "fair" condition in Fayette County Memorial Hospital, according to Fayette County sheriff's deputies.

Traveling north on Ohio 207, John P. White, 29, of Mount Sterling, was in the process of rounding a curve located about a half mile north of the Cook-Yankeetown Road when he lost control of his motorcycle, sheriff's deputies stated.

The motorcycle traveled off the left side of the road, throwing White to the ground in the process. The 4:20 p.m. Tuesday accident resulted in severe damage to the motorcycle, sheriff's deputies reported.

A truck driven by Larry L. Lauderbaugh, 34, of Danville, was northwest bound on U.S. 35-NW when it reportedly attempted to pass a pickup truck traveling ahead that was in the process of turning left onto the Milledgeville-Octa Road at 9:20 a.m. Tuesday.

Both vehicles sustained moderate damage.

A citizens band radio valued at $130 belonging to Kenneth Kirk, of New Holland, was reported stolen from his car as it was parked in front of his residence sometime around 2:30 a.m. Tuesday.

Washington C.H. police officers investigated the alleged theft of a $70 bicycle from in front of the Washington Senior High School, Willard St.

Clint Kellis, 422 Western Ave., told police officers that his bicycle, left in front of the school around 7 p.m. Tuesday, was stolen.

Avenue, Harry Hayslip Jr., 47, of Mount Sterling, reportedly struck a car stopped behind his vehicle. Both the truck and the car, driven by Vivian I. Smith, 45, of 1203 Gregg St., were slightly damaged.

3:42 p.m.—Backing from a parking space in front of the Washington Senior High School, a car driven by Lora L. White, 39, of Greenfield, struck a car parked behind it belonging to Pamela J. Heiney, 27, of 532 W. Market St., police officers said. Both cars received slight damage.

11:03 a.m.—Traveling east on E. Market St., a truck driven by James A. Stewart, 66, of 834 Willard St., was turning left into a private drive in the 100 block when it reportedly struck a car proceeding west on Market Street.

The car, driven by Mary A. Cox, 65, of Lakeview Ave., incurred moderate damage, while Stewart's truck was slightly damaged. He was cited for failing to yield to an oncoming vehicle.

9:25 a.m.—A car driven by Cynthia L. Blizard, 20, of 7637 Camp Grove Road, attempted to make a right turn on red, police officers said, and sideswiped a car traveling north on Fayette Street. The other car was driven by Betty L. McQuinnif, 55, U.S. 35, and it was moderately damaged. Ms. Blizard was charged with a red light violation, and her car received slight damage.

Firemen said that heated cooking oil in the kitchen of the Horace K. Wilson residence, 530 Mayfair Drive, caught fire at 6:40 p.m. Tuesday. The flames reportedly spread to surrounding structures in the kitchen, causing an estimated $2,000 in damages.

Water from a pumper truck was used by firemen to douse the blaze.

Temperatures have begun to moderate across Ohio after an unseasonably chilly three weeks.

Lows fell only into the upper 20s and 30s overnight, well above normal for this time of the year.

Some sunshine was to prevail across the state today, combining with southerly breezes to push afternoon readings into the 40s. Cloudiness will increase tonight and a few scattered light flurries will move into the state Thursday under the influence of a weak front expected to move through Ohio tonight and early Thursday.

Temperatures tonight will be about the same as this morning's. Highs Thursday will be a bit cooler than today's, reaching the upper 30s and 40s—about normal for mid-December.

Furrier gives advice on theft

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A furrier has this advice to the girlfriend of the thief who broke a show window and took a fur this weekend: "Bring the mink back," he said in a newspaper ad. "If it doesn't fit properly, no one will believe it came from the store."

The ad also admonishes: "Quit going with that guy. Anyone who would steal a coat...is just too dumb for someone like you."

State park fee increases set

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Price increases will go into effect at state-operated parks on Jan. 1, according to the Ohio Department of Natural Resources.

Fee hikes for rental of state-operated cabins, camping areas, boat docks and for use of golfing facilities were set by the Ohio Department of Natural Resources' Division of Parks and Recreation following a public hearing in Columbus last May.

Price increases will not apply to cabins operated for the Ohio Department of Natural Resources by Ohio Inns, Inc.

Under the Parks and Recreation Division's administrative rules, fee increases for rental of state-operated park cabins include:

- Off-season rates for rental of deluxe cabins at Cowan, Dillon, Hocking Hills, Lake Hope, Mohican, Pike Lake and Pymatuning state parks will be $130 a week, up from $120, or $32.50 a day, up from $30, through March 31.
- During the regular season beginning April 1 deluxe cabins will rent for $165 a week or $37.50 a day, an increase of $10 a week and $2.50 a day.
- Standard housekeeping cabins at Lake Hope, Pike Lake and Pymatuning state parks, which are available April 1 through Oct. 31, will cost $130 a week or $27 a day, an increase of $13 a week and $2 a day.
- At South Bass Island State Park, standard housekeeping cabins will rent for $105 a week or $21 a day for two bedrooms and $85 a week or $16 a day for a one-bedroom cabin. The new rates at South Bass are up $5 a week and $1 a day from last year's rates. South Bass cabins will be open May 1 through Oct. 1.
- The three-bedroom cabins at Geneva State Park will cost Ohioans $5 a week and $1 a day more than last year. Geneva cabins, open May 1 to Oct. 1, will rent for $135 a week or $27 a night.
- The deluxe cabin at Deer Creek STATE PARK will cost $250 a week, up from $225, or $45 a day, up from $40.
- Rates for sleeping cabins at Lake Hope State Park will increase $5 a week and $2 a day. The new rates include $85 a week of $17 a day for a one-bedroom cabin, $95 a week or $19 a day for two bedrooms and $115 a week or $23 a day for a three-bedroom cabin. Rental of a four-bedroom cabin at Lake Hope will cost $135 a week or $27 a day.

— A $5 surcharge will apply to one-night-only rentals on all state-operated cabins.

A $10 deposit is required to reserve cabins operated by the Ohio Department of Natural Resources. Written notice 15 days prior to scheduled arrival date is required for return of the deposit if the reservation is cancelled.

In addition to price increases for boat dock rentals and for golfing facilities, fees for camping areas will go up 25 cents across the board. The 25-cent increase for camping areas does not apply to group rates for youths.

Facilities at the 18-hole golf courses at Hueston Woods, Salt Fork and Punderson State parks will cost an additional 50 cents for nine and 18 holes of golf. Golfers will be paying $4 for nine holes, $5 for 18 holes on weekdays or $6 for 18 holes on weekends or holidays.

With the 50-cent price increase at Shawnee, golfers will be paying $3 for nine holes and $4 for 18 holes of golf.

Season boat dock rentals will cost $85, up $10 from last year's fee, a tie-up stakes will rent for $15, a $2 increase.

Senior citizens participating in the "Golden Buckeye Card" program will continue to receive a 50 per cent reduction on camping fees Sunday through Thursday night and on golfing costs Monday through Friday.

Golden Buckeye Card members will also receive a 30 per cent discount on cabin rentals Sunday through Thursday night from Nov. 1 to March 31. Card holders will pay $91 a week or $22.75 a night, up from $84 a week and $21 a day. Full rates apply on Friday and Saturday nights and from April 1 through Oct. 31.

Swimmers at John Bryan State Park or Hocking Hills Dining Lodge swimming pools will also pay higher rates. Swimming facilities will cost adults 85 cents and youths 40 cents a day, an increase of 10 and 5 cents respectively.

Free enterprise system topic at Rotary meeting

The free enterprise system in the U.S. was the topic discussed at the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Washington C.H. Rotary Club Tuesday in the Country Club.

Perse Harlow, a member of the Rotary Club's public relations committee, quoted a number of business leaders and attempted to show the general misconception about the U.S. free enterprise system.

Harlow, owner of Harlow business Service, 320 N. Main St., referred to Public opinion polls which disclosed that the public believes that U.S. corporations earn from 28 to 60 per cent profit on sales when the actual figure is closer to five per cent.

He also said a recent Gallup Poll indicated showed the majority of U.S. college students do not understand the nation's economic system.

"It's (the free enterprise system) not all that perfect, but it has brought a better way of life for more families than any other system in the world," Harlow stated.

After challenging fellow Rotary Club members to correct existing problems and insure the survival of the free enterprise system, Harlow said the system "offers the greatest opportunity for each American to realize his or her maximum potential."

During the meeting conducted by club president Dr. George Pommert, a new member was inducted.

Allen Mossbarger, 232 Kathryn Court, was inducted after being sponsored for membership by Don Kirk. Mossbarger is a local State Farm Insurance Co. agent.

Chris Schlichter of Miami Trace High School was a student guest and visiting Rotarians were James Tootle Jr., of Chillicothe, and Merrill Kaufman, of Delaware.

Start a BancOhio Individual Retirement Account now.

If you don't have a qualified retirement or profit-sharing plan where you work, open a BancOhio Individual Retirement Account (IRA). It'll earn a 7.9% annual yield through daily compounding of 7.5% annual interest.

Start your IRA for as little as $25, then deposit any amount, any time. You can deposit as much as 15% of your annual earned income, up to $1,500 each year ($3,000 if both husband and wife qualify).

Every dollar you deposit is tax deductible.

It doesn't matter whether you itemize or take the standard deduction. Even your interest is tax free until you begin withdrawals (when you will probably be in a lower tax bracket). At age 59½, you can start withdrawing while funds remaining on deposit continue to yield 7.9% annually. (Regulations require that withdrawals begin by age 70½.)

There are no service charges, no commissions.

No matter how big or small your IRA, there's no charge. And we'll mail regular reports to keep you up to date. To learn more about the BancOhio Individual Retirement Account, contact any of our offices.

All deposits made before December 31 will become deductions on your 1976 Federal income tax return. That way you'll be contributing to your IRA instead of paying the IRS!

The difference between taxable savings and a BancOhio IRA.

If you deposit $1,500 each year:

After	Taxable Savings Program	Individual Retirement Account	The Difference with IRA
5 years	$ 6,710	$ 9,480	$ 2,770
10 years	15,650	23,340	7,690
15 years	27,580	43,610	16,030
20 years	43,510	73,250	29,740
25 years	64,690	116,610	51,920
30 years	92,980	180,020	87,040

Taxable Savings Program* is based on 7.5% annual interest compounded daily to yield 7.9% annually, less taxes. IRA column is based on same rates, but taxes are deferred. Figures assume 25% income tax bracket with deposits made at beginning of year. Substantial interest penalties required for premature withdrawals. Interest rates subject to change.

By county alcohol advisory council

Employee assistance program eyed

The Fayette County Alcohol Advisory Council met Tuesday at the Fayette County Health Department for its second meeting. Registered nurses Phyllis Richards and Blanche Johnston presided over the meeting in the absence of chairman Dr. Robert U. Anderson.

New members of the council were introduced. They are Paul Crosby, Downtown Drug Co.; Susan Link, Ohio Bell Telephone Co.; George Malek, executive vice president of the Washington C.H. Area Chamber of Commerce, and James Kiger a local attorney.

The council discussed the employee assistance program, which was presented in detail at the last council meeting by Robert Partridge, a representative of the Central Ohio

Regional Consultant Agency (CORCA). Mrs. Johnston said that there are approximately 35 industries in the area which must be approached concerning the implementation of the plan. She has visited some of the industries and has presented the idea of unit management approach to alcoholism to management personnel.

Mrs. Johnston said that the Ohio Department of Health could make available several consultants to start the employee assistance program if any of the industries were interested.

Malek suggested that an effective way to introduce the employee assistance program to the community would be by scheduling consultants to speak before local organizations, or at the monthly meetings of the Chamber manufacturers council. Plans were made to pursue Malek's suggestion.

Mrs. Richards reviewed the council's proposed policies which were accepted unanimously. In the future, the council will be composed of 12 individuals, each serving a term of three years and eligible to serve two consecutive terms. Council members will be representing a wide spectrum of the community, with a doctor, lawyer, industry and business representative on the council. The council will act as a liaison between the local alcohol program and the health department. At a later date, the selection of a new council will be done by a committee chosen by the chairman of the council.

Robert L. Kunz, administrator of Fayette County Memorial Hospital, and Mrs. Link, were appointed to the Community wide plan committee. The council outlined the top priorities of the committee. The Rev. Ralph Wolford, who said that he is interested in nipping the problem (of alcoholism) before it becomes a problem, suggested that an educational program, dealing with alcoholism, be instituted into the school system. Virginia Essman, of the Fayette County Welfare Department, recommended that someone from the school become a member of the council.

The possibility of creating a DWI school in this area, such as the one in Franklin County, was suggested. Mrs. Johnston said that she had met with a DWI school instructor who said that he would be glad to come to Fayette County and explain the program.

Kunz talked about the Alcohol Council's, and the hospital's, future plans of creating a detoxification center in Fayette County, which would be housed at the hospital. Kunz, who said that such a center would require an isolated area within the hospital, as well as additional beds, remarked "There are a lot of ramifications. Right now, we wouldn't have the facilities for such a center, but down the line, I can see it. But, it's not the type of thing you do overnight."

Kunz pointed out that the key problem in creating a center, is funding. "If adequate funding can be arrived at, I think the detox-center could be a reality."

Mrs. Richards and Homer Miller both said that the alcoholism program in Fayette County may be allotted a specific amount of money next year.

Christy Tarbutton is our first featured senior this week. She lives at 548 Brentwood Drive with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tarbutton.

This year in school she is taking Government, Symphonic Choir, Advanced Math, Mythology, Typing I, Family Living, Clothing, and Composition.

Her activities this year and in years past include being an office assistant, cheerleading for four years of which she was captain for three years, Student Council for four years and secretary of it for two years, National Honor Society, 4-H for five years, FHA and AFS for two years, and a Buckeye Girl's State delegate. In her spare time she likes to sew, swim, meet new people, and dance.

Since Christy is quite an accomplished dancer, she is planning to major in choreography at Ohio State University or the University of Cincinnati, and also to teach at summer cheerleading camps.

Christy's advice to the underclassmen is, "Make the most of everything you do now; for all too soon, it's only a big group of memories. Make your memories happy ones."

A new face at Miami Trace this year is Marilyn Seifried who is involved in the FFA program here. She resides at 1894 Flakes Ford Road with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter Seifried.

Her courses include Bookkeeping I, Advanced Animal Science, Farm Management, Composition, Speed Reading-Media, Art I, International Studies, British Literature and Government. She is a member of AFS, Y-Teens, FFA, and FTA. Marilyn has been a Campfire Girl for 10 years, in 4-H sewing clubs for three years and livestock clubs for four years, and a Junior Leadership member for four years. She enjoys singing in her church choir and working in the Bible school. Marilyn likes to raise and work with hogs. So, she plans to further her education at Ohio State University and work in the swine industry. This past summer she was the Fayette County Pork Queen. She also likes to sew, cook, crochet and be outdoors.

Marilyn advised the underclassmen, "When you have done your best, there is no more that can be asked of you."

Singing the national anthem for the Panther Varsity basketball home games has been the highlight of Cindi Grover's years at Miami Trace. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Grover and lives at 2906 Parrott Station Road.

Cindi's subjects are Sociology, Composition, Family Living, American Literature, Psychology, Government, Typing, Symphonic Choir, and Marching Band. Her activities through the years have been Folksingers, FHA, Dramatic Arts, National Honor Society, Pep, Symphonic, and Stage bands, morning announcer, Ambitious Farmers 4-H Club, and the Ohio Dorset Queen for 1976. She is a member of Grace United Methodist Church and serves on the youth Council.

Cindi's speciality is showing sheep. She likes to meet interesting people throughout the country by showing purebred Dorset sheep. She is more interested in singing, though, and she plans to attend Ohio State University and major in vocal music.

Cindy Baird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Baird, resides at Route 1, Greenfield.

She is taking Speech, Psychology, Composition, Government, Journalism, Family Living, Accounting, and Physiology. Cindy is active in 4-H by being in Junior Leadership and on the Junior Fairboard. She is also a drill team co-captain, Mitra yearbook editor, a member of "Who's Who" and president of the student AFS club. She enjoys sewing, showing Angus cattle, and relaxing.

Cindy's plan for the future is to attend the Ohio State University School of Nursing.

Her advice to underclassmen was for them to become involved because their four years will go very fast. Being a part of AFS and meeting all the interesting people from foreign countries has highlighted Cindy's years at Miami Trace.

Students ready for annual Christmas trip to island

By BRET LONGBERRY
"Andros, here we come!" That's the type of talk heard around Miami Trace these days as the high school's Field Studies members prepare for their second annual trip to Andros Island in

The Bahamas.
The group under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gass will leave Fayette County at 3 p.m. Thursday on a 12-day trek.
Seven actual days will be spent on the island, where 17 Miami Trace students and eight Washington Senior High School students will study tidal changes, animals, sand, and other environmental aspects of the island. They will also be studying the life styles and customs of the people living there. The highlight of the stay on the island will be participating in the Bahamian's Christmas Eve worship.

Before arriving on the island, the group will spend a day at Disney World in Florida. Other stops planned during the trip include a visit to Corkscrew Swamp, Blue Springs State Park to see the endangered manatee, a large sea mammal; and a fossil shark tooth stop in Venice, Fla.

Staff members for this trip besides Mr. and Mrs. Gass will be Bob Spengler and Dan Ondrejko. Joining the group on the island will be Frank Huss.

This trip marks the fifth in the history of the Field Studies club. The group was formed two years ago and has journeyed across the American Southwest and Northwest, to Mammoth Cave in Kentucky, and to Andros Island.

MT sets Christmas concert

By KIM CONLEY
Well it's that time of year again, snow, twinkling lights and beautiful carols are filling the night. And keeping right in time with this glorious season, this year's Miami Trace High School vocal and band presentation promises to be the best ever.

All four of the choruses at Miami Trace will be doing traditional and modern Yule songs Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. The band will be featuring a narrated

Christmas fantasy and will be joining Folksingers, Symphonic, and Concert Choirs to perform the old favorite "Sleigh Ride."

But the highlight and finale of the show will be the combined choruses performing the touching "Oh Holy Night."

So come on out and get into the Christmas spirit. It will be a night filled with music and an experience not soon to be forgotten.

Santa and the Giant Fighter

Synopsis: When the Fairy Queen says Goko will be slain by the light of the moon the giant captures the moon and hides it in a cave with a dragon to guard it.

BILLY MEETS THE DRAGON

The cave where the moon was hidden was three miles beneath the ground. To reach it one had to travel through miles and miles of tunnel and would round and round and round like a circular staircase leading to the center of the earth.

Billy the Giant Fighter started down the tunnel. It was very dark. He felt his way along the sides of the tunnel. It was dank and oozy and cold. Something dripped on his head and a cobweb drifted against his face.

He clutched his wooden sword and began to run. The tunnel grew smaller. Billy bent lower and lower until, first, he was on his hands and knees and, finally, he was squirming along on his stomach.

He wanted to shout for help but he could hardly breathe. Who would have heard him anyway? Santa had gone back to Santa Land and ahead of the boy was he knew not what.

He shut his eyes and inched along pushing his wooden sword in front of him. When he opened his eyes he saw a dim blue light ahead. Moments later he came into a brightly lit cave. Fingers of ice dripped from the ceiling. Daggers of stones jutted up from the floor. A dozen tunnels led out of the cave. Billy did not know which one to take. He did not even know which one had led him there.

He sat down on a slimy rock pile and wondered what on earth to do. He had never felt so lost and alone.

But he was not really alone. Someone yanked at his sleeve and a whiskered old gnome said, "Are you the boy who fights giants?"

"How did you know?" cried Billy.

"All the Little Folk know," grunted the gnome.

He told Billy there were many, many caves under the mountain and the gnomes had lived in them for a thousand years. But since Goko the giant had hidden the moon in the bottom-most cave all the gnomes had fled because they were very afraid of the giant.

"I am the last to leave," said the old gnome. He sniffed a little. It was all very sad he said, and he couldn't help crying because he did not see how a mere boy could slay the wicked giant even if he managed to set free the moon.

"I can try," said Billy bravely. "Will you show me the tunnel that leads to the bottom-most cave?"

"Not the tunnel!" exclaimed the gnome. "You must take the Gnome-Go-Bucket. I have stayed here to show it to you."

"Are you the boy who fights giants?"

He pulled a huge rock slab from the wall. There was a little closet and hanging in the closet was a silver bucket.

"Get in," said the gnome, "Push the button. It's like any other elevator."

Billy climbed in the bucket. There was a row of buttons on the handle. He pushed the bottom one.

The Go-Bucket went clinking, clackety-clackety, slam, banging, smackety-rackety, whop, crump, bang, smash, down through the earth and it wasn't like any other elevator in the whole wide world.

It finally came to a stop, turned on its side and dumped Billy out in the dimly lighted cave where the dragon was guarding the captured moon.

Billy leaped to his feet. His knees shook and his heart pounded at the sight of the hideous beast.

The monster rose on his rear legs, thumped his huge tail and opened his massive jaws.

Billy tried to cry out, "Stay back!" Unfortunately he had lost his voice from fright and not a sound came out of his mouth.

Tomorrow: The Magic Words.

Recovery findings announced

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Unallowable expenditures from student activity funds resulted in findings for recovery totaling $2,536 in an audit of the Southwest Local school district in Hamilton County, the state auditor's office reported.

Of that amount, findings for recovery totaled $2,029 against Harrison High School personnel and represented unallowable expenditures for food and gifts and unauthorized payments to athletic personnel for meetings.

Ferguson said all findings in the school district audit, for the period July 1, 1972 to Dec. 31, 1975, were in favor of accounts from which the money was misspent.

In another audit, eight findings for recovery totaling $4,680 were reported in an audit of the Medina County Park District.

The auditor also said that the audit, conducted for Jan. 1, 1972 to March 31, 1976, showed that no receipts were issued for money received by the district and an improper receipts journal was maintained.

The examiner also noted that former district Director Barry Muha entered into lease and note agreements for the district, contrary to state law which gives that authority to the park board.

The largest finding was against the Board of Park Commissioners in the amount of $1,384 for payment of interest on a 1974 note with 1975 funds. The examiner said the money should have been appropriated in 1974.

GM sees record sales in 1977

DETROIT (AP) — As the auto industry reported its strongest sales pace for an early December in seven years, General Motors Corp. on Tuesday predicted record U.S. car and truck sales in 1977.

In contrast to trimmed forecasts issued recently by other automakers, GM Chairman Thomas A. Murphy said he was raising his estimate 250,000 units to nearly 14.8 million domestic and imported sales next year.

The current record of 14.6 million vehicles came in 1973 and was followed by a severe two-year recession.

Murphy also announced a record $3 billion in capital expenditures planned for 1977, up 25 per cent from an estimated $2.4 billion spent for facilities and tools this year.

"We have made this commitment to growth because we are convinced the prospects for the economy and the automobile industry in the year ahead are very favorable," he said. "Our confidence has not been diminished at all, nor has the consumer's confidence, which is all important."

Meanwhile, the four U.S. automakers reported car sales during the Dec. 1-10 period totaled 211,528, up 1 percent from a year ago. The daily rate of 23,503 units was the highest for the period since 1969.

"It's not a spectacular performance, but it's good for this time of year and shows considerable improvement over the daily tempo we'd expect," said one industry analyst.

Ironically, GM, which has been leading the industry's recovery, reported a 1 per cent decline in early December sales from a year ago, its first period decline since August 1975. GM blamed the drop on a Chevrolet dealer contest a year ago which produced strong sales, adding that sales in the full month would be "considerably better" than last year.

Ford Motor Co. reported a 5 per cent

sales gain for the period, its first increase since mid-September, when it was struck for 28 days by the United Auto Workers.

Chrysler Corp., which reported a 9 per cent increase, said Tuesday it was revising its assembly schedules for January to increase light duty truck and sport utility model production. It also said it would close two plants the week of Jan. 3 to balance inventories of its Volare and Aspen models.

American Motors Corp. posted a 23 per cent sales decline for the early December period. Small-car specialist AMC, which has been in a deep slump all year, said Gremlin and Pacer sales in the past month have gone up 19 per cent over the previous month because of a $253 price cut and rebates.

For the year-to-date, industry sales are up 22 per cent from 1975. Chrysler is up 31 per cent, GM 27 per cent and Ford 13 per cent, while AMC was off 24 per cent.

Murphy said domestic and foreign vehicle sales in the United States this year would total 13.3 million, up 20 per cent from 1975. He predicted car sales next year would be 11.25 million and trucks 3.5 million, compared with estimated 1976 sales of 10.1 million cars and a record 3.2 million trucks. He said import car sales this year would total about 1.5 million and be about the same in 1977.

Traffic Court

Two traffic charges were heard Tuesday in Washington C.H. Municipal Court. Judge John P. Case presided. James A. Sutton, 58, of New Holland, was fined $150, sentenced to three days in jail and had his driver's license suspended for 30 days for driving while under the influence of alcohol.

For driving an unsafe vehicle, Douglas E. Fitch, 20, of Sabina, was fined $30. He was fined $30 for failing to transfer the registration of a motor vehicle.

TRAINING ENDS — Army Private Jim D. Justice, 19, son of Mrs. Audrey M. Justice, Rt. 5, Washington C.H., recently completed training as an armor crewman under the One Station Unit Training program at Fort Knox, Ky. The 13-week program combines basic combat training with advanced individual training. During the training, students learn the duties of a tank crewman, including the firing of the tank's armament and small weapons. They also receive instruction in field radio operations, map reading and tank maintenance and repair. Pvt. Justice is a 1975 graduate of Miami Trace High School.

Service Notes

Army Private Edward E. Riser, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Riser, Rt. 2, Williamsport, Ohio, recently was assigned as a heavy equipment engineer in the 82nd Airborne Division at Ft. Bragg, N.C. He is a 1976 graduate of Westfall High School, Orient, Ohio.

Navy Aviation Electrician's Mate Airman Apprentice David A. Walton Jr., son of Mr. David A. Walton Sr. of 3407 Worthington Road, Washington C.H. has completed the Aviation Electrician's Mate Course.

The 11-week course was conducted at the Naval Air Technical Training Center, Millington, Tenn. The concentrated training program is designed to provide an introductory understanding of electrical theory and circuitry, and serves to prepare trainees to perform basic electrical maintenance on jet aircraft.

Students received classroom instruction on, and studied the operating procedures for, electrohydraulic and automatic flight control systems, plus power generation and distribution systems.

A 1975 graduate of Miami Trace High School, he joined the Navy in January 1976.

Boy's case unresolved

CINCINNATI (AP) — The case of a 10-year-old Forest Park, Ohio, boy convicted of shooting a dog and firing into a crowd of students in a school yard, remains unresolved in Hamilton County Juvenile Court.

"There are few options open to the court when the child is that young, other than placing him in a foster home," said a juvenile court spokesman.

The child's parents voluntarily admitted the boy to Longview State Hospital for psychiatric treatment.

Forest Park police said the boy broke into a home Nov. 2 and stole a rifle and ammunition. He then fired three shots at a German shepherd dog, breaking its leg, police said. Two blocks away, the boy allegedly fired a fourth shot into a crowd of 40 children during recess at Forest Park Elementary School. None of them was injured, according to police.

A poem, "Anthony and Cleopatra," once recited by school pupils across America, was written by William H. Lytle, 1826-1863, of Cincinnati, Ohio, a Civil War general killed leading a charge at Chickamauga.

Hurricane leaves Lions out in cold

By MARK REA
Record-Herald Sports Editor

The chilling winds of a Wilmington Hurricane dealt the Washington C.H. Blue Lions an agonizingly slow destruction as the Hurricane took sole possession of first place in the South Central Ohio League.

The Lions stayed close throughout the first half but were outscored 13-6 in the third quarter and the fourth quarter made the evening a long one for Wilmington.

Court House, who was averaging 89 points a game, could manage only half that amount in the stinging 64-41 loss. The Hurricane's cold winds turned the usually hot shooting hands of the Lions into icy stubs as Court House shot a miserable 28.5 per cent from the field. "We didn't play our game because they wouldn't let us," lamented Lion head coach Gary Shaffer. "They got back too fast on defense and took the (fast) break away. And we couldn't make anything the second half."

Washington was actually close at halftime, 23-22. But, the presence of 6-2 junior Gary Williams under the basket smashed the Lions' hopes for a second half comeback.

Williams, who led the game with 20 rebounds, positioned himself under the offensive boards and tipped balls in the bucket to the tune of 22 points.

The first half looked like a game played in slow motion. Neither team took a decided advantage as they both played give-away. The teams flashed moments of good play, but the moments often didn't last long.

The Lions held the first quarter lead at 13-10 while the Hurricane led at halftime 23-22. But, as the second half began, Wilmington fielded a completely different team than the one they showed in the first half.

After suffering through two uneventful quarters, the fans watched as Wilmington reeled off nine unanswered points to take a 34-26 lead late in the third quarter.

The Hurricane broke the game open in the fourth quarter as they had an eight point streak to open a 48-30 lead. Wilmington simply coasted to the win from that point and the buzzer sounded with the Hurricane going away, 64-41.

Williams led all scorers in the game with his 22 tallies. Senior Tony Berlin tossed in 19 points for Wilmington and David Nared, who kept Wilmington in the game in the first half, contributed 13 points.

Washington's Sam McClendon was the only Lion in double figures with 15 points. McClendon has been suffering with an arm injury but it didn't bother him in last night's game.

Perhaps the real key for Wilmington was their containment of the Lions' John Denen. Denen had a bad night shooting and collected only nine points after averaging 26.

Washington's next game will be Friday night against Miami Trace in the Lions' gym.

The Washington C.H. jayvees took an unbelievable 46-45 victory last night from the Wilmington reserves.

The Lions were down 34-26 at the start of the fourth quarter but fought back to take the lead later in the game. Steve Pritchett put the game winning basket in with :02 showing to give the Lions the heart stopping win.

Pritchett led the Lions with 23 points while Tom Bath scored 11 and Dennis Dunn scored 10 points.

Bob Brecha scored 23 for the Hurricane to tie him with Pritchett for the game leadership.

Tigers whip Trace for 'king of jungle'

By DONNIE SMITH
Record-Herald Sports Writer

EBER, Ohio — When the Tigers from Circleville came to town last night, they left no doubt in the mind of any Panther fan about who is "king of the jungle." Circleville mauled Miami Trace in a key SCOL contest 77-64.

Actually the game was much closer than the final score indicates. At the end of the third period, one slim point separated the two teams as Circleville held a 50-49 lead. But the Tigers proved too much for the Panthers to handle in the fourth quarter as they out scored the home team 27-15 and coasted to the victory.

The win gave Circleville a 2-1 record in the league and 4-1 overall. The loss hurt Miami Trace as they dropped to 1-2 in the league and are now 3-2 in total season play.

The game was evenly matched in the first half as the biggest lead either team could manage was four points. The first quarter came down to a shooting match between the Panther's Art Schlichter and Circleville's Toren Bensonhaver.

Schlichter accounted for 10 of Miami Trace's first quarter total of 15 points. Likewise, Bensonhaver of Circleville had eight of his team's 12.

In the second period, 6-5 senior Brent Wright, who moved into the Circleville district from Frankfort Adena to play the center position, came to life. Wright hit for eight points in that period, most of his points coming from tip-ins or close-in jump shots. Wright was a definite figure in the Circleville victory due to his height and ability to pull down rebounds both offensively and defensively, as well as score points.

The first half of play ended with Circleville holding a 36-32 lead. But the first 16 minutes of basketball was anything but impressive. There was a total of three technical fouls. Two were called on the Tigers for unsportsmanlike conduct while on the court. The third one was called against a member of the Miami Trace bench when he vocally disagreed with a referee's decision.

Miami Trace had numerous turnovers that cost them points. Such things as stepping on the base line when throwing the ball in bounds, occurred three times.

Miami Trace fell behind early in the third quarter when Bensonhaver put on a one man show as he scored eight unanswered points for the Tigers. That gave Circleville a 46-36 lead. It looked like the Tigers were going to run away with the game when they held a 50-39 lead late in the third period.

Then Schlichter, along with Dan Gifford and David Glass, ripped off 10 consecutive points to make the score 50-49 at the end of period number three.

In the fourth period it seemed as if Circleville couldn't do anything wrong and Miami Trace couldn't do anything right. There was one point in the final period where Circleville outscored the Panthers 19-6, and from then on it was all downhill for the Tigers. The game ended with Circleville on top 77-64.

The leading scorer for both teams was junior guard Schlichter who hit for 24 points. Schlichter was followed by Wright and Bensonhaver of Circleville who both had 22 points. Frank Merrill

The Miami Trace Panther reserve team lost to the Circleville Tigers in a squeaker 58-47. The game wasn't decided until there were 11 seconds left in the game and Peter Harrison hit both shots of a one-and-one to give Circleville the lead and the victory.

The leading scorer for the game was Harrison of Circleville with 23 points. Teammate Donald Hill threw in 13 for the Tigers.

Todd Delay was the leading man for the Panthers as he hit for 16 while Scott Grooms accounted for 11 points.

Reserve coach Mike Henry was naturally disappointed with the loss, but he felt that both teams played a good ballgame. He also commented "My kids never quit. They will stay in there and fight until the end."

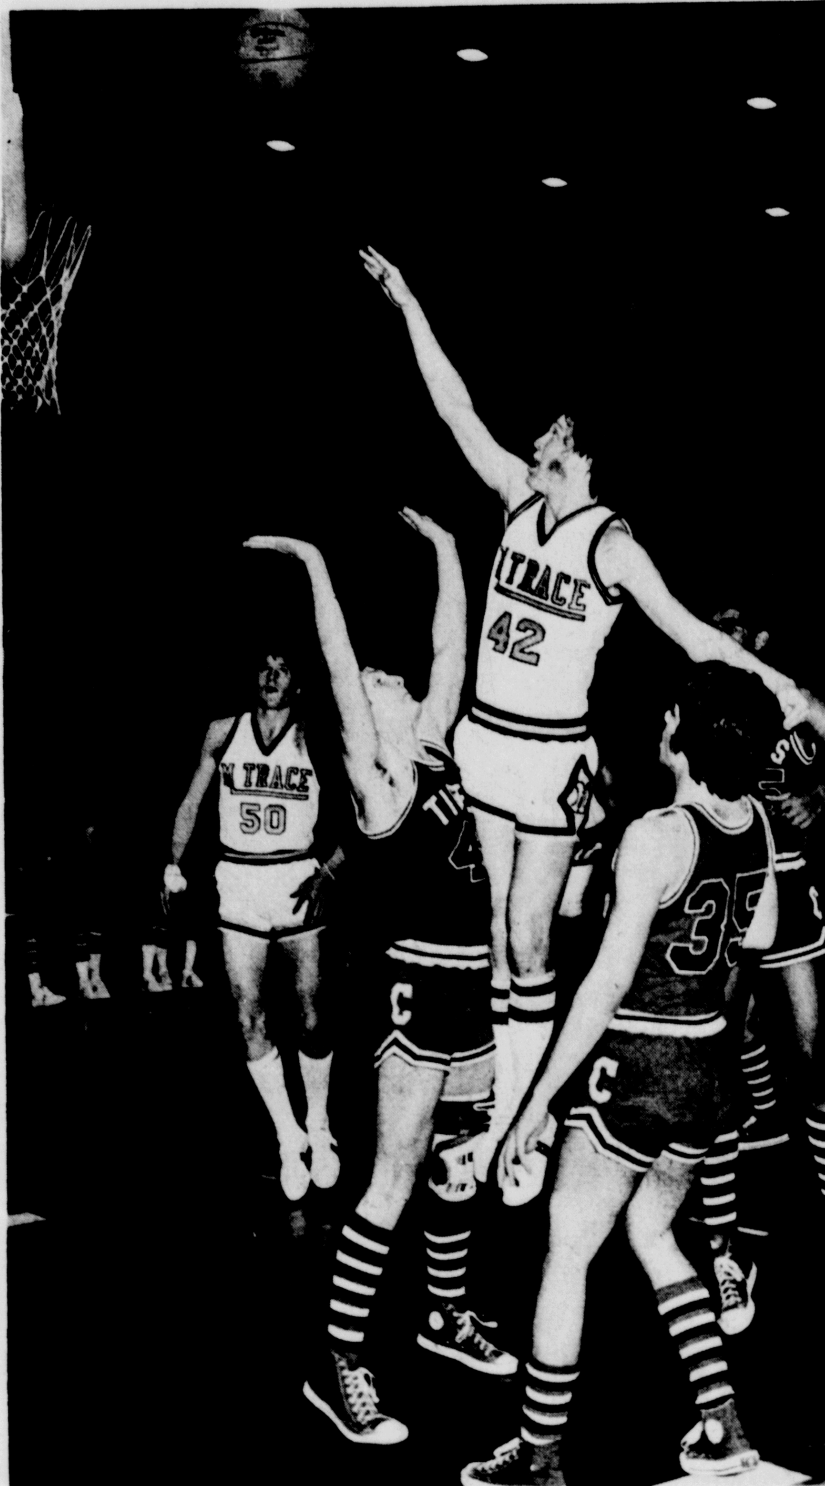

The Panther jayvees play Washington C.H. next Friday night.

Miami Trace (47)					Circleville (77)
Trace (47)	—	Delay 7-2-16	Persinger 7-0-14	Grooms 3-5-11	Coe 2-0-4	St. Clair 1-0-2	Totals 20-7-47
Circleville (48)	—	Harrison 9-5-23	Elsa 3-2-8	Hill 5-3-13	Pfleegeer 2-0-4	Totals 19-10-48
Miami Trace	47	10	11	10	16	47
Circleville	77	14	14	7	13	48

also contributed 18 points for the victorious Tigers.

Now the Panthers must prepare themselves for their do or die game with the Washington C.H. Friday night. The game will be played on the WSHS court and the action begins with the reserve contest at 6:30 p.m.

BYE BYE BALL — Joe Black of Miami Trace seems to be waving goodbye to the ball as it heads toward the basket. The Circleville Tigers have Miami Trace fans wanting to say goodbye to last night's game as the Tigers won 77-64.

Buckeyes favored over Colorado

Conferences undefined as football eyes bowl games

HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — With Arizona and Arizona State mulling invitations to bolt the Western Athletic Conference and join the Pac-8, it is not clear just how many teams still are in the WAC. But two of the leftovers — co-champions Wyoming and Brigham Young, both unranked nationally — will attempt to embarrass the haughty Big Eight on the WAC's behalf for the second year in a row.

The regular-season forecasting ended with a 20-4-1 — 833 final week, bringing the record for the year to 538-222-13 — .708. The bowls shape up this way: Fiesta Bowl, No. 8 Oklahoma vs. Wyoming; If they come to play, this will be the biggest mismatch of all the bowls; if they do not, it will not be close, either...Oklahoma 45-14.

Tangerine Bowl, No. 14 Oklahoma State vs. Brigham Young: These clubs hooked up in the Fiesta two years ago with Oklahoma State winning 16-6. No Big Eight embarrassment here, either...Oklahoma State 35-24.

Liberty Bowl, No. 7 UCLA vs. No. 16 Alabama: Bruins blew another shot at the Rose Bowl and will be making their first post-season appearance elsewhere. Alabama, which came on strong, is in its 18th bowl in a row and 30th over-all, both national records...Alabama 24-21.

Gator Bowl, No. 15 Notre Dame vs. No. 20 (tie) Penn State: Pitt's Tony Dorsett started Notre Dame's season off on the wrong foot and ended Penn State's the same way...Notre Dame 17-

10. Peach Bowl, No. 20 (tie) North Carolina vs. Kentucky: The last time Kentucky went to a bowl was a quarter-century ago, a 13-7 Sugar Bowl triumph over Oklahoma...Kentucky 26-14.

Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl, No. 9 Texas Tech vs. No. 13 Nebraska: The Cornhuskers are out to make amends for last year's Fiesta Bowl demise...Nebraska 31-21.

Sun Bowl, No. 10 Texas A&M vs. Florida: One of the great bowl matchups in history between two teams with tremendous penchants for turning something good into a bad scene...Texas A&M 30-13.

Orange Bowl, No. 11 Ohio State vs. No. 12 Colorado. Nothing to say about the national championship; not even a Top Ten team on hand in sunny Florida, just sunny Woody Hayes and his one-time pupil, sunny Bill Mallory...Ohio State 14-7.

Cotton Bowl, No. 4 Maryland vs. No. 6 Houston: Coach Jerry Claiborne claims Maryland is the best team in the country and he is mad the Terrapins have been downgraded so far...Houston 27-20.

Rose Bowl, No. 2 Michigan vs. No. 3 Southern California: "I think the game is for the national championship," says Southern Cal's John Robinson...Southern Cal 21-14.

Sugar Bowl, No. 1 Pittsburgh vs. No. 5 Georgia: Four years ago, Johnny Majors announced he was leaving Iowa State for Pitt and the Cyclones promptly lost to Georgia 31-30 in the Sugar Bowl...Pitt 28-17.

Notre Dame kayos Indiana

By The Associated Press
A "four-corner offense" put the Indiana Hoosiers on the ropes and a "zone" delivered the knockout punch. That is what it took for Notre Dame to beat the reeling defending national basketball champions 78-65 Tuesday night.

The defeat was the third straight for the No. 16 Hoosiers, their longest losing streak in five years.

Toby Knight, who came off the bench and scored a career-high 23 points, paced the Irish, 6-0. Dave Batton scored 18 points.

All-American Kent Benson led

Indiana with 18 points. Benson did not score during nearly 13 minutes at the start of the game.

Indiana committed 22 turnovers in the first half.

"Notre Dame is a very quick team," Indiana Coach Bobby Knight added. "Duck Williams has quick hands and quick feet."

In other college basketball games Tuesday night, Tom Cutler scored 14 points, leading Western Michigan to a 65-56 victory over Toledo; Alton Byrd fired in 17 points, handed out 10 assists and grabbed eight rebounds, sparking Columbia to a 90-62 decision over Manhattan; Clemson routed Buffalo 98-67 as Wayne "Tree" Rollins and Stan Rome combined for 42 points; Blair Martineau pumped in 28 points, pacing Utah State over Utah 92-90.

Also, Tom Schneeberger scored a career-high 28 points, helping Air Force beat Regis College 79-64; Edgar Jones' 21 points led Nevada-Reno past North Dakota State 101-94, and Greg Ballard tossed in 17 points and grabbed 12 rebounds, leading Oregon to a 61-51 victory over Cal State-Fullerton.

In a doubleheader at the Palestra in Philadelphia, Marty Stahurski's two free throws and a clutch steal started an 8-0 streak that propelled Temple over Navy 55-54 and Princeton defeated Villanova 77-74 as Bob Kleinert made 12 of 12 free throws.

Luis Tiant's parents die

MILTON, Mass. (AP) — On a warm August night in 1975, thousands of baseball fans stood and cheered as Luis E. and Isabel Tiant, parents of Boston Red Sox pitcher Luis Tiant, stood and took a bow.

Tuesday, some 200 friends watched as two bronze colored coffins were placed side by side at Milton Cemetery.

Tiant's father and mother, companions for 36 years, died within three days of each other. Both were 72. The elder Tiant died Friday following a brief illness. His wife died Monday of a heart attack.

So they never have to travel alone.

Well, why not get them a traveling consultant and companion . . . someone who will always be with them whether they travel by car, plane, bus, ship or train. Someone who will take care of ticket arrangements and hotel reservations for them. Someone who actually knows the fastest or the most scenic way to get to where they're going.

And wouldn't it be nice if this someone could get a stalled car started again . . . change a tire . . . or could even tow your friend or relative to the nearest service station when other car trouble pops up?

What more could you give these special people? Unless, of course, this traveling companion could provide a traffic bail bond, personal accident insurance and even help make sure Ohio and the federal government are instituting sound safety and travel legislation.

That traveling companion is an AAA membership. You can give those special people on your Christmas list an AAA membership for less than you'd spend for most jewelry, tools or clothes. And you would know that your gift would be with them every day of the year; whether they travel across the globe, across the nation or across the street. Whether they are going to work, to school or to the store. . . give the AAA, so they never have to travel alone!

What's new on the market?

THE PRODUCT — A portable cutting-welding torch that utilizes bottled oxygen.

Manufacturer's claim — That this torch uses the same real bottled oxygen employed in heavy industrial welding equipment but can be used by do-it-yourselfers as well as by professional craftsmen... that separate oxygen and fuel gas cylinders are screwed onto a compact stainless steel assembly... that the fuel gas and oxygen flow are controlled by separate knobs conveniently located on top of the torch... that the torch will cut up to a 1/4-inch steel plate or 3/4-inch bolt with either propane or Mapp gas, as the user chooses... that the unit is light enough to be operated with one hand, has a flashback arrester and uses a non-clog tip for both welding and cutting... and that it is easy to use as an ordinary propane torch.

THE PRODUCT — A plastic interior storm window.

Manufacturer's claim — That, although a number of interior insulating windows made of plastic film are on the market, this product is made of a rigid acrylic plastic sheet inserted in trim... that it is fastened to the window frame with strong adhesive tape... that do-it-yourselfers buy both the sheet and trim in kits and cut them to size to fit their own windows... that the job of cutting and putting up the window can be done in 30 minutes or less... that the trim, made of vinyl with an adhesive backing, can be painted with water-based paint to match the frames... and the plastic sheet can be removed for easy storage or cleaning by lifting it out of the moulding strips, which can be left on the frame.

THE PRODUCT — A spray-on paint stripper.

Manufacturer's claim — That this stripper will remove all types of paint, varnish, tar, asphalt, grease, glue and many other things from wood, metal, concrete and other hard-to-clean surfaces... that the stripper breaks down adhesion and does not dissolve the paint... that, after an application, the old finish can be removed with hot or cold water or a putty knife... and that it is non-flammable, non-caustic and is biodegradable.

THE PRODUCT — A home designer kit.

Manufacturer's claim — That each kit contains more than 500 pieces of typical household furniture, appliances and construction symbols painted on cardboard, gumbacked and ready to punch out... that it also contains a grid planning board equivalent to 4,000 square feet of living space... that it can be used as a moving guide for the placement of furniture on moving day... that it will help you decide whether your present furniture will fit specific areas... and that it can be used effectively during the planning of redecorating.

(Do-it-yourselfers will find much valuable information in Andy Lang's handbook, "Practical Home Repairs," available by sending $1.50 to this newspaper at Box 5, Teaneck, N. J. 07666.)

(The cutting-welding torch is manufactured by Bernzomatic Corp., 740 Driving Park Ave., Rochester, N. Y. 14613; the storm window by Plaskolite, 1770 Joyce Ave., Columbus, Ohio 43216; the paint stripper by House of Gifts, Box 31127, San Francisco, Calif. 94131; and the home designer kit by Plan of the Century, 946 N. Elm St., Orange, Calif. 92667.)

Here's How Living Space Opens Up

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures

Being married to a builder may have advantages for an interior designer who is interested in how to make space work. You can get him to listen, says Jane Victor of New York, who believes "living space should be redefined. What is predefined by architects is not applicable to today's living."

"We must ask ourselves who we are and how we want to live. Some people have children, some have animals, some are single, some couples are retired. They all must function differently, so how can they all be happy in the same structured environment," explains the popular designer, who is in her 30s.

And that's where her husband comes in. She has persuaded him — it wasn't easy — to lease square footage rather than rooms. Walls would be flexible and people could define their own living areas. As she points out, we shouldn't need boundaries. People should be able to spend time wherever they desire for whatever purpose.

"Why should we say we must sit here, we must dine there although we'd like the dining view more than just at dinner. As for dining rooms, we may use them only six times a year."

People shouldn't be put into surroundings where they cannot feel free in space as we once knew it in apartments and homes that had music rooms, sewing rooms and enormous cooking areas where we could roam about, she says. Space should provide more flexibility. Ten years ago a one-bedroom apartment had 1,500 square feet, now it is 1,000 square feet "if you are lucky."

Her husband has had a trial run of the "look, no walls" idea in a loft where it has proved to be successful. Now she has persuaded him to build a small, 40-unit cooperative apartment building as an experiment. She plans to do overlays — showing how the space can be divided so that one can do what one wants to do. She has an idea for a wall system of fire retardant materials and electrical things totally within a grid system that could be flexible, which she hopes to patent.

"Builders often cannot do what they want to do because banks may be too conservative, but I think it will change because people are becoming more resistant to the way apartments in particular are structured and they are paying more attention to function."

"This provides a sculptural quality on 20 different levels that are totally seatable. Sit on the steps (which are also used for storage) in jeans or cocktail dress and enjoy the casual living and entertainment below — better than sitting on chairs and easier than rising from the floor."

Miss Victor has designed every kind of interior from medical clinics to hotels in the last 11 years, and she has found that all design must be based on an individual approach whether it is a factory planned for 500 people or a home for one individual who likes to cook.

Q — I intend to have some extensive work done on my house within a few months. I keep reading all the time about the necessity of getting a reliable contractor to do the work, but I simply can not come up with any simple formula for finding one who is reliable. Do you have one?

A. — No. There is no such formula. But you can take some steps that will give you a reasonable assurance of getting a contractor whose price will be fair and who will do a quality job. You are fortunate in having plenty of time to make the necessary checks. I do not know of any better way to find a reliable contractor than to talk to people who have had similar work done. ### The Many Causes of Hoarseness

I've been told that hoarseness is one of the signs of cancer. I've been hoarse for more than three months and even though a throat specialist hasn't found any trouble with my voice box, I'm still concerned. — Mr. J. L., Ohio

Dear Mr. L.: You have been "told" wrong. Whoever it was who told you that hoarseness is always a sign of cancer did you an injustice by introducing this idea in your head.

Let me see if I can't set you straight. Hoarseness, like pain or fever, is the body's way of calling attention to special needs for help.

Not all hoarseness is caused by cancer. In fact, not more than a small fraction of cases of hoarseness are attributed to any serious trouble.

The vocal cords are two strands of muscle tissue about an inch long. They lie in the voice box, or larynx, in the neck. When one speaks, the vocal cords come together. They separate while breathing. One cannot speak and breathe at the same time.

Anything that interferes with the vocal cords coming together in tight contact can cause hoarseness. Temporary swelling during a cold, allergic reactions, vocal abuse, nodules, polyps and tumors can all produce hoarseness.

Tobacco, especially cigarette smoking, is a particular offender.

Examination of the larynx, known as "laryngoscopy," can readily establish the presence or absence of any disease or impaired motion of the vocal cords. This apparently was done for you. Therefore you should feel reassured.

Certainly, if the hoarseness persists you should be examined at regular intervals for the added assurance you obviously need.

Can a severe fright turn the hair suddenly white? — Mrs. G. W., Iowa

Dear Mrs. W.: Every doctor has been told by some patient that fright, or a calamity, or a severe emotional upset has been responsible for suddenly turning the hair white.

Perhaps it is true, but there is no real scientific basis for it. Some drugs can hurry the graying process and give the impression of suddenness.

Severe illnesses and malnutrition can give the same impression. The pigment-producing cells at the root of the hair can, perhaps, be affected by fright. Even if this did happen the hair itself would suddenly lose all its pigment and turn white.

The bidding:

North East South West
Pass Pass 4♠ Dble
Opening lead - ten of diamonds.

Here is a practical problem. Assume you're West and lead the ten of diamonds against four spades doubled. Dummy plays the three, East the seven, and South the king.

Declarer leads the ten of spades, which you win with the king. When you play the nine of diamonds, everyone follows low. South ruffs the next diamond and plays the jack of spades, which you win with the ace as East discards a heart.

You have now reached the critical point of the play, and whether you beat the contract two tricks (500 points) or one trick (200 points) depends on what you do next.

Let's suppose you led your last diamond, which seems to be the natural thing to do. Declarer ruffs and runs all his trumps, forcing you to come down to three cards — presumably the ace of hearts and K-J of clubs. He then leads a heart and you are compelled to return a club to declarer's A-Q for down one.

Now let's go back to trick five when you win the second trump lead with the ace. By this time you know that South started with precisely eight spades and two diamonds.

It is reasonable to assume that one of declarer's three unknown cards is the ace of clubs. However, the other two cards cannot be determined with certainty. If you assume that South has the ace of clubs singleton, which means he has a doubleton heart, you cannot stop him from making nine tricks.

But if you assume that South has a singleton heart, there is a sure way to beat him two tricks. In line with this, you cash the ace of hearts before playing the fourth round of diamonds. You later get a club trick, and the reward for your careful reasoning is that you collect the maximum penalty — 500 points.

Toledo school funding crisis worse in '77

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The Toledo school board, in the midst of a 13-day school closing because of a $3.5 million budget deficit, instructed its superintendent Tuesday to propose savings for next year's budget.

That document projects an even larger deficit than this year's.

Supt. Frank Dick was told to draw up a list of "economies and cuts" that would not affect basic education programs or the district's contract with unions.

The board had been reluctant to consider cuts because it wanted to preserve the level and extent of its programs. Board members, however, admitted that these economies would be only a stopgap measure until a levy increase is approved or another way is found to finance the schools.

On Nov. 2, voters rejected a 7.7-mill tax increase, the third time in a year that a levy increase had been defeated. This forced the board to close the schools after Dec. 3 until Jan. 3.

The board was told at a special session—held at a city branch library because the school administration building along with the schools was closed—that keeping the existing programs and personnel at the same level as this year would result in nearly a $13 million deficit in 1977.

Board President Dr. Robert Jackson said the board either has to make some cuts or it will have to shut down as early as October next year.

But school board member Genie Waggoner said that school patrons want economies but don't want to see such programs as athletics and bands cut.

Specific measures to save money will be considered at the board's regular meeting next Tuesday.

The $6,000-pupil district is one of seven school districts in the state forced to close early this year because they ran out of money.

New austerity plan slated in Britain

LONDON (AP) — Chancellor of the Exchequer Denis Healey was expected to announce a second $1.6-billion cut in government spending and higher sales taxes today in order to get a $3.9-billion loan from the International Monetary Fund (IMF).

Along with his austerity interim budget, the Labor government's financial chief was also expected to tell the House of Commons that the government was selling a large part of its stock in British Petroleum (BP) to raise $800 million.

The government slashed public spending $1.6 billion five months ago, but this did little to halt Britain's economic slide. The new cuts will hit a wide range of government programs, including welfare, housing, health and transportation. Leftwing Laborites and the trade unions oppose the cuts, contending that they will mean more unemployment.

Britain is suffering its gravest economic crisis since the great depression of the 1930s. The country is deep in the red. There are about 1.2 million unemployed. Industry is stagnant. Inflation is still rampant, and the pound has been driven below $1.70.

The IMF originally told the government it would have to cut government spending about $4.8 billion to get the loan it wants. But Prime Minister James Callaghan and Healey insisted the British public would not put up with that much austerity.

The IMF agreed to scale down its demands but said Britain must try harder to balance its books, even if it means lower living standards.

Oil drums spin for electricity

CARBON HILL, Ill. (AP) — John Jacklich hopes to have his "oil drums in the sky" spinning homemade electricity by spring.

"They laughed at Edison and the Wright Brothers. If they want to laugh at 'John's Energy Plant' let 'em," says the retired home remodeler and contractor.

The contraption consists of sixteen 55-gallon oil drums, cut in halves and mounted on a lattice-work of pipe. The drums, on swivels, capture the air and rotate a vertical column of 8-inch pipe.

The apparatus is 26 feet in diameter and 21 feet high, and its drive mechanism operates a generator. It cost Jacklich, 63, about $5,000.

At OPEC meet

Saudi Arabia urges delay in price hike

DOHA, Qatar (AP) — The Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) opened a price-fixing meeting today with only conservative Saudi Arabia, the cartel's biggest producer, opposed to an increase in the price of crude oil.

The Saudi oil minister, Sheikh Ahmed Zaki Yamani, said on his arrival in Doha that his country favors postponing the increase for six more months because the world economy is still too shaky. The Saudis previously said they would agree to a "reasonable increase" of less than 10 per cent in the price of $11.51 for a barrel of benchmark crude.

The ministers of the 13 nations who supply 80 per cent of the oil imported by the world's non-Communist nations met behind bullet-proof shutters in the banquet hall of a luxurious hotel beside the Persian Gulf.

Indonesian Oil Minister Mohammed Sadli, the current chairman of OPEC, opened the conference with a reminder to the ministers that their decisions would "affect the state of health of the world, not only now but for some time to come."

"We hope to convince the members of OPEC of our views," Yamani said. "We believe we have a strong view, but we never come with a position we can't change."

Yamani said his government has found that the trend of international economic recovery "is not as strong as we hoped to have." He noted that Saudi Arabian light crude is the benchmark oil on which OPEC's price structure is based, and he commented: "I don't

Gilmore gets latest date with death

PROVO, Utah (AP) — Gary Mark Gilmore hopes the third time will prove the charm when he gets his latest date with death from the judge who has sentenced him twice before.

The 36-year-old Death Row inmate, eating again and pleased that the U.S. Supreme Court lifted his stay of execution, had a scheduled court appearance today before District Judge Robert J. Bullock, who sentenced him to face a firing squad on Nov. 15 and Dec. 7.

But Gilmore's mother and at least one group opposed to capital punishment hoped legal action would once again keep him from fulfilling his wish to die swiftly rather than spend his life in jail for killing a Provo motel clerk last July.

Lawyers for Bessie Gilmore of Milwaukee, Ore., on Tuesday asked the U.S. Supreme Court to reconsider its Monday decision lifting its stay.

Shirley Pedler, executive director of the Utah American Civil Liberties Union, said the ACLU was considering court action to stop the execution.

Attorney Tom Jones, fired last month by Gilmore, is seeking a stay of execution in the state Supreme Court. The ACLU has asked to intervene in that action as a friend of the court.

Gilmore, who has spent 18 years in penal institutions, asked his lawyers to drop a motion filed last week seeking his release on a legal technicality — that the state didn't execute him within 60 days of sentencing as required by Utah law.

Attorney Ronald Stanger said Gilmore told him he broke a fast he had started on Nov. 19 because he was happy about the court ruling and because "I got a little hungry."

Gilmore stopped eating when authorities wouldn't allow him to telephone his girlfriend, Nicole Barrett.

Bulletin

PROVO, Utah (AP) — A judge gave Gary Gilmore his third date with death today, ordering him shot at sunrise Jan. 17. Gilmore said he would ask to be released from prison because of the delay.

For underprivileged children

Legion Yule party slated for Dec. 21

The Paul H. Hughey American Legion Post 25 and the Legion auxiliary will hold their annual Christmas party for underprivileged children in Fayette County at the American Legion home, 212 N. Fayette St., at 2 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 21.

More than 300 children, ages 6 to 10, are expected to attend the annual party; half of them from the Washington C.H. School District and half from the Miami Trace School District.

F. Paul Souther, chairman of the project, said children are selected to attend the party by the Fayette County Health Department staff and teachers in the Washington C.H. and Miami Trace school districts.

Treats and oranges will be distributed to each child in addition to gloves and socks.

Santa Claus, who will arrive at the party at 2:30 p.m., will give each a new toy and some children will receive envelopes containing certificates for clothing which the Fayette County Health Department has requested.

The children in the Miami Trace School District will be transported to the party by PTO members and teachers, and the Washington C.H. youngsters will be brought to the party by American Legion and auxiliary members.

Souther said letters have been sent to several organizations requesting contributions to help finance the party. Additional contributions can be sent to Souther, 421 W., Court St.

The Christmas party has been an annual event for the past 29 years. The late Dr. Charles M. Pfersick founded the event while serving as commander of the Legion post 28 years ago. Souther became chairman two years ago.

Legionnaires and others wishing to assist with the party should report to the American Legion hall by 1:30 p.m.

Landmark gives way to years, disuse

Washington Hotel demolition begins

A wrecker's ball smashed into a rear wall of the former Washington Inn Hotel Tuesday as demolition crews began razing the 65-year-old Washington C.H. landmark.

The three-story structure, which once housed a YMCA before it was converted to a hotel and restaurant, is owned by local realtor and auctioneer Frank J. Weade.

Weade, who purchased the building at a sheriff's sale in 1973, said he presently has no definite plans for the site at the corner of Market and Main streets once the demolition is completed.

"The building was obsolete and I had no use for it in its present state," Weade commented. He said he planned to confer with consultants to discuss future plans for the site.

A spokesman for the Cartwright Refuse Removal Co. said it would probably take approximately 30 days for the structure to be completely leveled.

The demolition work was begun at the rear of the building where the YMCA gymnasium was located. A basement swimming pool, last used in the early 1950s, was slowly being filled in by the rubble.

The half-block-long hotel, restaurant and a health spa housed inside the structure were closed this summer. The owner held four auctions during the summer months to dispose of the interior furnishings.

DEMOLITION UNDERWAY — Wrecking crews began tearing down the walls of the old Washington Inn Hotel building, Market and Main streets, Tuesday. The demolition of three-story, half-block-long building is expected to take 30 days. The building was constructed in 1911.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A productive but partisan two-year legislative session, dominated by majority Democrats, has concluded here with final adjournment of the 111th General Assembly.

State senators approved 109 of Gov. James A. Rhodes' appointments, rejected one, and failed to override a Rhodes veto before calling it quits Tuesday. Thirty minutes later at 2:25 p.m., the House also adjourned "sine die," without setting a future date, and the 1975-76 session was dissolved.

The 112th General Assembly convenes Jan. 3.

"It was hectic, at times chaotic," admitted Senate Majority Leader Oliver Ocasek, D-28 Akron, "but when history is written, I think it will be the most productive general assembly."

Senate Minority Leader Michael J. Maloney, R-7 Cincinnati, has a different assessment. "Thank God it's over," he said.

Maloney agreed that a number of significant bills had been enacted, but said achievements were "overshadowed by the totally unnecessary high level of partisanship."

An equal yield formula for state subsidies to schools, reform of drug and utility rate laws and medical malpractice protection are among enactments viewed as major legislation of the session.

Most of the final session was devoted to Senate confirmations, which included two Rhodes cabinet members: Highway Safety Director Robert Charamonte, and Workmen's Compensation Administrator Robert C. Daugherty. Both men got the assignments from Rhodes recently, as a result of controversies in the two agencies.

Robert Kinney lost his $30,638-a-year post as commissioner of tax equalization by a 20-10 vote, as Democrats prevailed in a straight party line vote.

Kinney stood accused by Sen. Tony Hall, D-6 Dayton, of providing statistical information that was used in a campaign ad by Hall's opponent to suggest that the senator was responsible for tax increases.

"They inferred in so many words that me, Senator Hall, had a lot to do with raising taxes in Montgomery County to the tune of $20 million," Hall said.

Maloney, who defended Kinney, was prime sponsor of the 1972 property reappraisal bill that has resulted in property tax increases.

Rhodes' executive assistant, Thomas J. Moyer, told newsmen "the bottom line question is whether the (Kinney) information was public, factual information, and the answer to that is yes."

Kinney was the fourth Rhodes administration official to be ousted by the Senate.

Only one other appointment, Nursing Home Advisory Commission member Herbert Artman of Salem, drew debate. Sen. Marigene Valquette, D-11 Toledo, said Artman should be rejected because "he has stated flatly that the state standards for nursing homes are too high." The former Columbiana County judge survived by a bare majority.

The other 109 appointees were approved unanimously in a bloc vote.

The Senate failed by one vote to override Rhodes' veto of a bill that would have set up a legislative oversight committee to keep a rein on state agency rule-making power. Rep. Thomas P. Gilmartin, D-57 Youngstown, the sponsor, said he would introduce the bill again next year to give the legislature some authority over bureaucratic regulations.

The House had no major business on the agenda, but Speaker Vernal G. Riffe Jr., D-89 New Boston, used the occasion to praise the legislative record and point out that voters had returned Democrats with larger majorities.

In the upcoming 1977-78 session, Democrats will have enough votes in both houses to override any gubernatorial veto without Republican help. They were one vote short of a veto-proof majority in the House during the past session.

"It's not a perfect record," Riffe said, "but we are going to improve on it next year."

Next year will happen in Columbus without two familiar figures in Statehouse corridors, Rep. Ethel Swanbeck, R-72 Huron, dean of House Republicans, and Sen. Robert T. Secrest, D-20 Cambridge, a veteran of nearly 50 years in public life. Both are retiring.

Mrs. Swanbeck said the House had been a second family for her and "a wonderful family to be with all these years."

Secrest, a former congressman, said his "happiest and most productive years" had been spent in the state legislature.

"I have served with great men on both sides of the aisle," he said. "This is the only country in the world where a 14-year-old coal miner could end with his 48th year in politics."

Eight senators and seven state representatives will not return next year, for various reasons.

Huntington Bank names new president

Donald A. Leibee, of Westerville, was elected president and chief executive officer of the Huntington Bank of Washington C.H. by the board of directors at its meeting Tuesday.

Leibee's election followed the resignation of Richard E. Whiteside as president of the bank effective Jan. 3.

The announcement of Leibee's appointment was made by Ronald K. Cornwell, chairman of the bank's board of directors. "We are very pleased to welcome Mr. Leibee as president of the bank, and look forward to a challenging and innovative period in the years ahead," said Cornwell.

Leibee has been an assistant vice president of Huntington Bancshares, Inc., of Columbus, since 1974. Prior to joining the multi-bank holding company, Leibee was with the Comptroller of the Currency. He joined the comptroller's office in 1967 as an assistant national bank examiner and in 1972 was promoted to national bank examiner within the Fourth National Bank Region with headquarters in Cleveland.

"Coming to Washington C.H. is a pleasure," said Leibee, "and I hope to become actively involved in the affairs of the Fayette County Area and to help residents achieve their financial goals."

Leibee is a graduate of Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, Ky., and a native of Hardy, Ky. He is also a graduate of the School for Commissioned National Bank Examiners and a graduate of the National Commercial Lending School at the University of Oklahoma where he earned the coveted designation of certified commercial lending officer.

Carter sets more appointments

PLAINS, Ga. (AP) — Having filled three Cabinet posts, President-elect Carter is expected to announce Thursday his choice for at least one more post, probably secretary of agriculture.

Rep. Bob Bergland, D-Minn., a farm operator and political ally of Vice President-elect Walter F. Mondale, was widely seen as the likely choice to head the Agriculture Department.

Carter spokesman Jody Powell emphasized Tuesday that Carter's next appointments will not necessarily all involve Cabinet secretariats. Powell said simply they would be Cabinet-level posts and said there would be at least two announcements.

Another possibility was an announcement of Carter's reported decision to name Charles Schultze, budget director in the Johnson administration, as chairman of his Council of Economic Advisers.

Meanwhile, Rep. Andrew Young, D-Ga., said he has been offered the post as U.S. ambassador to the United Nations but that he hasn't made up his mind about whether to take the job.

Carter and several top aides cautioned newsmen again Tuesday against advance speculation about choices for top appointments.

Earlier, Jane Cahill Pfeiffer, a former IBM vice president, had asked that she not be considered for secretary of commerce, saying a Washington job would have parted her from her husband, and because she had undergone a thyroid cancer operation less than a year ago that left her without "confidence in my own sustained energy level."

At his Tuesday news conference, Carter said he will nominate W. Michael Blumenthal, chairman of the Bendix Corp., as treasury secretary and Rep. Brock Adams, D-Wash., as transportation secretary.

Carter said he probably will announce, even before his inauguration, an economic program aimed at creating jobs and, quite likely, reducing taxes. He said he favors job-creating programs supplemented by tax breaks.

The President-elect also disclosed that Vance has joined Secretary of State Henry A. Kissinger in trying to persuade members of the Organization of Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC) from imposing steep oil price increases at a price-fixing meeting in the Middle East this week.

The President-elect ducked a question about pay raises for top federal employees, saying the matter rests on outgoing President Ford's desk.

On other topics, Carter said: —He has not given sufficient study to possible duplication of offensive weapons systems to decide whether defense spending might be curbed by eliminating some of them.

—He is confident Congress will give him authority, probably by the end of February, to draw up broad government reorganization plans that would go into effect automatically unless vetoed by the Senate or House.

—The government faces a near record deficit of $60 billion to $65 billion from the 1977 budget he will inherit from President Ford, but he declined to say what size deficit he might face in his first year in office.

Christmas spending to determine policy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The jingling of cash registers, not sleigh bells, will be the key to a successful Christmas season for the incoming Carter administration.

President-elect Carter and his advisers have put Christmas retail sales at the top of the list of economic statistics that will influence their decision on whether to recommend a tax break next year.

Retail sales have been disappointing since early in the year. And when Americans stop buying, businesses stop producing and that means fewer jobs on production lines.

There are other statistics this month that will count in Carter's decision, including November industrial production figures that will be released late today.

There also will be figures on housing starts and personal income, both on Thursday, corporate profits on Monday, consumer prices on Dec. 21, and the index of leading economic indicators on Dec. 29.

At an Atlanta news conference Tuesday, Carter said he will meet with his key advisers soon after Christmas to decide on what to do about the economy. He said he probably will announce the decision before he takes office Jan. 20.

If things remain as they are now, he indicated, help will definitely be needed. He noted that with unemployment at 8.1 per cent and inflation still dogging the economy, "the economic problems are very severe."

He said he prefers jobs programs as the best way to put people back to work, adding that he would supplement those with a tax break, if necessary.

Retail sales is one of the statistics that gives the quickest look at what is happening in the economy. So if consumers start buying generously at Christmas, it may mean they will keep on spending into next year, diminishing the need for a quick tax cut.

The whole purpose of a tax break is to put money into the hands of consumers so they can buy more.

Some encouragement was found in the retail sales report for November, which was up 1.7 per cent over October.

Another economic indicator, meanwhile, showed a slight improvement in October. The Commerce Department said business inventories that month grew at their lowest pace in six months.

Inventory growth can reduce production if business tries to sell excess stocks rather than manufacturing more goods.

In another development, William Lilley III, acting director of the Council on Wage and Price Stability, said the nation's steel companies were having problems getting the recently announced steel price increases to stick.

Udall may get top interior panel post

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Jim Wright's election as House Democratic Leader has complicated the biennial shuffle of House committee chairmanships. Among the likely beneficiaries is Rep. Morris K. Udall, the unsuccessful presidential contender.

Udall, an Arizona Democrat, is in line to become chairman of the House Interior Committee by the time the Democrats get through deciding who gets what in the new 95th Congress.

The Democrats, with a 292-143 edge over the Republicans in the House, have the right to name the committee chairmen. The senior member of a committee traditionally gets the job, unless he is specifically rejected by the Democratic caucus or he already heads another committee.

As usual this year, several members find themselves atop more than one committee. They are forced to choose. There are eight major vacancies.

On interior, Udall has come to the fore despite being fourth on last session's seniority list. Two retirements occurred, and Rep. Harold Johnson of California decided he would rather be chairman of the Public Works Committee.

Johnson got his chance at Public Works because the senior member was Wright, who could not be both a committee chairman and majority leader.

The Interior job may give Udall more than just a vehicle for his pet bills on strip mining and land use planning. The committee is about to assume jurisdiction for some aspects of nuclear energy legislation.

The Democratic caucus last week approved a plan to break up the 30-year-old Joint Atomic Energy Committee and assign its duties to several of the standing House committees.

Udall was also next on the seniority list for the Post Office Committee. If he steps aside, Rep. Robert Nix of Pennsylvania is in line to get that.

Other congressmen in line for promotion to committee chairmanships include Democratic Reps. Clement Zablocki of Wisconsin, to International Relations; James Delaney of New York, Rules; and Tom Steed of Oklahoma, Small Business.

Rep. Benjamin S. Rosenthal, D-N.Y., says he and a group of members are studying whether to challenge Zablocki because they think he is too hawkish on foreign policy issues. However, Rosenthal does not appear to have enough support so far to do that.

It isn't clear yet who will get the chair at the Merchant Marine Committee. Rep. Thomas Ashley, D-Ohio, is the ranking member, but he has announced he would like to lead the Budget Committee.

Rep. John Dingell of Michigan would be the ranking Democrat on Merchant Marine if Ashley stepped aside, but his office says he isn't certain yet whether he wants the job.

Other Democrats who have said they might run for chairman of the Budget Committee are Reps. Robert N. Giaimo of Connecticut and Fortney (Pete) Stark of California.

Lottery sets instant game

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Ohio Lottery Commission says a new instant lottery game is expected to start about March 1.

The commission awarded a $934,000 contract for the new game Tuesday to Scientific Games Inc. of Atlanta, subject to approval by the State Controlling Board.

The commission also acted to transfer Thomas Crowley permanently from the security department to a job as regional liaison officer in the marketing department.

Crowley, 35, was named acting security director a few weeks ago but was reassigned temporarily to another job in the wake of disclosures that he had a 12-year-old criminal record involving use of the mails for distributing obscene materials and attempted extortion.

Utility firms react to cheating charges

By The Associated Press

Federal tax breaks stimulate new development, hold down rates for consumers and "are perfectly legal," representatives of six Ohio private utilities agreed in response to consumer groups' allegations that customers are being "ripped off."

The Environmental Action Foundation and the National Consumer Information Center reported this week that the six Ohio utilities charged consumers for nearly $29 million in taxes in 1975 which the utilities didn't have to pay.

The two groups said Dayton Power & Light Co. received $9.1 million in tax overcharges. Amounts listed for other Ohio firms were Cincinnati Gas & Electric, $8.2 million; Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co., $2.3 million; Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co., $5.8 million; Ohio Edison Co., $657,957 and Toledo Edison, $2 million.

A Cincinnati Gas & Electric Co. official referred to so-called tax "overcharges" as "perfectly legitimate tax credits" given to utilities and other companies as an incentive for investment in "job creating capital expenditures such as a new power plant."

"These tax credits are taken by companies like ours and others to invest in capital projects," the spokesman said. "It amounts to a 10 per cent tax break given a company and the benefits are eventually passed back to the consumer over a period of years."

Officials at Dayton Power & Light said the company pays the lowest legal amount "to minimize utility rates charged to its customers. It also takes advantage of all tax incentives which reduce the rate base and thereby reduce rate increases."

Robert E. Sisinger, vice president of corporate affairs for C&COE said the tax laws were created by Congress to give utilities and other businesses certain tax credits to encourage development and stimulate the economy.

"Every citizen of the United States who pays an income tax takes advantage of certain tax credits to reduce the amount of federal income tax he has to pay," Sisinger said.

A spokesman for CEI said utilities are "permitted by law" to take certain tax deductions such as those allowed for accelerated depreciation and investment tax credits. "These deductions, available to all businesses, represent a recognition by Congress of the need to stimulate investment and to help promote national recovery and employment," he said.

Donald Nicholson, Toledo Edison's vice president of finance, said it is "sheer nonsense to try to contend that complying with federal law is somehow improper or illegal." He accused the two Washington-based groups of being "ignorant of the laws or deliberately trying to mislead the public."

"What is true is that electric companies apply provisions of the tax law which are available to all types of businesses," Nicholson said. An Ohio Edison spokesman said the utility had not seen the report, but "it could be pointed out that this is more or less an annual event by the Environmental Action Foundation."

establish residence in the Washington C.H. area.

Whiteside, 520 E. Temple St., president of the bank for the past nine years, said he plans to pursue personal interests and investments.

"I plan to devote much of my time to farm management and real estate appraising," said Whiteside in commenting on his resignation from the bank.

"The bank has enjoyed unparalleled growth during Mr. Whiteside's administration," said Cornwell. "The Huntington Bank has grown to be the largest bank in the county while Mr. Whiteside has been president," he continued.

Whiteside has been active in community and banking affairs since being elected president of the bank in 1967. He is a past president of the Washington C.H. Rotary Club, the Washington C.H. Area Chamber of Commerce and of the Parent-Teachers association. He is also past president of the Fayette Area Bankers Association and a member of the agriculture committee of the Ohio Bankers Association. He is a member of the Grace United Methodist Church.

The facilities of the bank, located at the corner of Fayette and Court streets, have been greatly expanded since Whiteside joined the organization. In 1970, more than 3,000 persons attended an open house for the remodeled and enlarged bank building. In 1971 an annual breakfast for farm and business customers of the bank was organized.

Whiteside was affiliated with the Federal Land Bank Association before joining the Huntington Bank and is a recognized authority in farm real estate appraisals.

Carter win across U.S. proves thin

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — Jimmy Carter's victory margin over President Ford was a bare two per cent of the more than 81.5 million votes cast in the presidential balloting Nov. 2.

Based on certified or official vote totals from all 50 states and the District of Columbia, Carter won 40,827,292 votes to Ford's 39,146,157 — a 1,681,135-vote edge.

The minor party presidential candidates were led by independent Eugene McCarthy, who won 745,346 votes.

The other former Georgia governor in the presidential race, American party nominee Lester Maddox, garnered 170,086 votes. Libertarian party candidate Roger MacBride won 171,912 votes.

The survey of certified results from all the states found 81,518,720 Americans cast a vote for president, with all those who voted for minor party candidates and write-in votes included. This does not include at least 200,000 citizens who did not vote in the presidential race but cast ballots in other races.

Although McCarthy and the other minor party candidates did not accumulate votes equal to Carter's national margin, McCarthy's vote total in four states was greater than the difference between the two major candidate's votes.

In Oregon, Oklahoma and Maine, McCarthy's total was greater than Ford's margin over Carter.

In Ohio, the former senator's tally was larger than Carter's victory margin.

Stock list up again

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock prices moved higher again today as Tuesday's closing rally spilled over into early trading.

After the opening trades, the Dow Jones average of 30 industrials was up nearly two points.

Advancing issues took an early lead over declines on the New York Stock Exchange.

Indications that oil-rich Saudi Arabia will seek a six-month freeze on oil prices at this week's meeting of oil exporting countries and statements from President-elect Carter that the U.S. is actively trying to moderate any increase have fed Wall Street's hopes for a favorable OPEC decision on oil prices.

Lower interest rates which are a potential boost for the economy are also a factor helping the market, brokers said.

Early prices of stocks included Pacific Gas & Electric, up 1/4 to 23 3/4; Occidental Petroleum $3.60 preferred, up 1/8 to 72 1/8; and Pan American World Airways, ahead 1/8 to 5 1/8.

On Tuesday, the Dow Jones average rose 6.39 to 980.63.

The NYSE composite index showed a gain of .24 at 56.59 and advancing issues held a narrow lead over declines among issues traded on the New York Stock Exchange.

Turnover reached 25.13 million shares.

On the American Stock Exchange, the market value index was ahead .37 at 103.73.

Danger of 'bought' elections

When the Supreme Court threw out the campaign financing law's curb on how much of his or her own money a candidate for national office could spend, the action was applauded by some as a blow for free speech. This it may have been, but unfortunately the ruling had a deplorable side effect.

With no restriction on spending, a wealthy candidate willing to pour personal funds into the campaign has an obvious advantage over less well-heeled competitors. In extreme cases, such a candidate can virtually "buy" a seat in the House or Senate.

The matter is not an academic question. The past election campaign provided one notable example of conspicuous spending by a candidate. Whether or not it can fairly be said that H. John Heinz III of Pittsburgh "bought" the Senate seat he will soon be sworn in for, he did spend an enormous sum on his campaign for that office.

Heinz's final report under the campaign finance disclosure law shows that he spent a total of $2,930,000. According to the Associated Press, "All but $540,000 of that came from his own pocket." Heinz himself, one concludes, shelled out a whopping $2,390,000 to assure his election.

It may be that Heinz would have won even had he not spent more than twice what his opponent did - and vastly more of his own money. No one can say. The episode does dramatize the need for a new congressional look at this aspect of campaign spending reform.

Ways must be found to place some restraint on personal financing of campaigns. Until that is done there will always be the chance of some wealthy candidate's "buying" an election he would otherwise not have won.

A WORD EDGEWISE....By John P. Roche

Kissinger's last waltz

There was an almost pathetic quality about Chairman Kissinger's Philippine caper, but it does once more demonstrate the vitality of Karl Marx's insight that history repeats itself: first as tragedy, then as farce. The tragedy, of course, was Southeast Asia where Kissinger developed his sleight of hand, his talent for alleged "breakthroughs," and his devoted fan club also known as the diplomatic press corps. For a while it seemed that every time you looked up, a planeload of acrobats was off on some "shuttle," and before you got an opportunity adequately to evaluate the substantive results of one such frenzied gallop, another was in course.

Indeed, one of Secretary of State-designate Cyrus Vance's first big jobs will be finding out exactly what secret

United States commitments are tucked away in various foreign offices. And what private reservations may exist on various public commitments. For example, when the Chairman took President Ford to meet Brezhnev in Vladivostok, it was probably fair to say the Leader of the Free World did not know the difference between MIRCS, MARVS, and Margarine.

The President, however, initiated an agreement on strategic weapons limitations which was then provided with a post script by Kissinger explaining what we believed it meant. Brezhnev, when queried on this American gloss, said in effect that the Soviet Union was not bound by anybody else's unilateral interpretations.

The main reason the SALT II talks have been such a shambles is that the Vladivostok "agreement" was a fake, a species of "motherhood" resolution which provided no specific guidance on minor technicalities like cruise missiles and other items which in fact constitute the essence of strategic arms policy. To use a concrete example, if you are trying to determine whether the "Backfire" plane should be included in Soviet strategic delivery systems, a key question is: Are they equipped with aerial refueling cones? Similarly, can the new SS-20 missile, which the U.S.S.R. considers a tactical system, be easily converted to intercontinental use by the addition of a third-stage rocket?

Enough of this inconsequential detail - poor Cy will have to worry about it. The point is that for eight years, first as Nixon's subordinate and then as Ford's mentor, a virtuoso con man has carried on American foreign policy with mirrors. My guess is that any discussion of the Shanghai Communiqué between the Chinese Nationalists on Taiwan and the Communists in Peking would lead to some vigorous words on "inscrutable Americans." Admittedly ambiguity has decided value in international politics, so there is nothing wrong with leaving Peking and Taipei confused. But when you leave your own team baffled, the time has come to shut down the merry-go-round.

But, like the card-sharp who cheats at solitaire just to keep in practice, Henry Kissinger found the "breakthrough" game addictive. Not content with the mess, currently playing in Geneva, that resulted from his last heroic performance in Southern Africa, he took the inauguration of Jose Lopez Portillo as Mexico's new President as a trampoline for bouncing over the U.S. Philippine impasse. Meeting Philippine Foreign Minister Carlos Romulo at the Mexican festivities, and finding the latter in a convivial mood, the Chairman on the spot settled the complicated, and vital, issue of our base rights at Clark Field and Subic Bay.

Now Romulo is a nice elder statesman - it seems to me he was around when I was in high school - but he was roughly as much influence with Philippine President Ferdinand Marcos as I do. Marcos is a very tough man busy maintaining order (by martial law) in a society that seems to have inherited the worst of both the Spanish and American traditions. (When I was last in Manila, politicians were routinely accompanied by bodyguards armed with M-16s.) One of the reasons Romulo is Foreign Minister is a naive faith in democracy, which might get him in trouble if he spent much time at home.

To make the story short, Kissinger's last waltz was over before it began. It was comparable to making a deal for Greek bases with the exiled King Constantine. Marcos probably burned Romulo's cable: He's going to deal with the new landlord, not the outgoing tenants.

Expense statements due, Brown says

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Post-election contribution and expenditure statements must be filed by 4 p.m. Friday, Secretary of State Ted Brown said Tuesday.

In addition to the candidate's campaign committee, opposition committees, political parties, and committees formed to sponsor or oppose issues must file reports with the secretary of state.

Brown said committees exempted from filing a pre-election report because they received or spent less than $1,000 still must file the latter report to reflect all receipts and expenditures through the course of their campaigns.

The report must represent all transactions through the seventh day before it is filed, Brown said.

Use of CB alarms could curb thefts

By DENNIS A. ECKERT

Associated Press Writer

Owning a Citizen's Band radio these days has become an invitation to a ripoff by burglars. But resourceful CBers are turning to a variety of alarm systems.

The best security against theft, of course, is having nothing worth stealing. But once you've invested in a CB set it only makes sense to protect it. More manufacturers than ever are turning out alarm systems with different approaches to theft prevention. How well you understand what you need could make a crucial difference to either holding onto that two-way radio or seeing it go.

A good burglar alarm should keep away that burglar, true, but if he wants your set that much then there's nothing to stop him if he has enough determination and skill.

Therefore, whether you design your own system or purchase a ready-made one, you should concentrate on a system that activates those things burglars hate most: lights and noisemakers.

A good system should have flashing lights and sirens. Some of the more sophisticated systems even transmit an alarm to a small receiver that can be clipped to your belt or stashed in your purse.

Most alarm systems have some sort of noisemaker — horns, mechanical or electronic sirens or bells — but not many CBers have given much thought to flashing the lights already on your car.

If your car has been broken into and it's sitting in a crowded parking lot at night, most people wanting to help probably won't be able to locate it just by the alarm noise alone in time to do any good. Even sounding your horn won't attract too many people because most of us have heard enough stuck horns.

But there's another hitch to just using your horn to warn of a break-in. The horn wasn't designed to be left on continuously so it soon will overheat and burn out.

CBers can get around this by buying a simple relay for less than two dollars that will turn the horn on and off, attracting almost certain attention. Or if you car has dual horns, you can simply connect the relay to alternate the horns off and on.

You can draw attention to your car when the burglar has made his attack by installing another relay to turn on the four-way emergency flashers. Or add another relay to turn on the brakelights too. And you can find one that will turn headlights on and off, either alternately or simultaneously, or flash them on high and low beam.

Dear Abby:

ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

Who sparks those office parties?

DEAR ABBY: With Christmas coming soon, the same old problem for many of us wives is the Christmas office party-with no spouses invited!

After quite a few years, I realize now, it's the WOMEN who promote these affairs. I honestly believe that most men don't care for these office parties, but the women engineer everything. They get the men to sign up for those catered lunches, which now begins at 11:30 a.m. and goes on forever. They get them to agree to exchanging gifts. Anything just to get them to commit themselves.

The men go because if they don't, the other men will say they are henpecked.

AGAINST CHRISTMAS PARTIES
DEAR AGAINST: More and more large companies are making Christmas parties a "family affair." Married employees are free to bring their spouses, and single ones may bring a date. In offices where mates and dates are not welcome, you can be sure a vote was taken, and the majority ruled. No one is forced to go to an office party. And that "henpecked" excuse is only good for chickens.

DEAR ABBY: I have a boyfriend (he's no "boy," he's a 45-year-old man) who has needed to see a dentist for at least three years that I've known about. His teeth are in terrible shape. Some are so rotten they are crumbling, and he has large spaces in his mouth where he's lost teeth and never had them replaced.

He even gets terrible toothaches and headaches because of the miserable shape his mouth is in. Yet he refuses to go to a dentist. He has made up all sorts of excuses, saying he's too busy, his dentist has a three-month waiting list, etc. Finally, he told me he can't stand pain, and he can't take novocaine.

He looks awful, and it can't be good for his health. How do I get him to a dentist? I love him. He's too big, or I'd drug him and drag him there.

DESPERATE

DEAR DESPERATE: Forget the drugging and dragging, and turn to educating. Ask your dentist for written material on the new methods of painless dentistry.

If neither doctor nor dentist can impress upon your friend the importance of dental care, point out the futility in loving a man whose health is going downhill because of needless fear and ignorance.

DEAR ABBY: I am a widow in my early 60s. I live with my sister and her husband, but I am financially independent and pay my fair share.

When my sister and her husband are invited to someone's home for dinner, they say to me: "The So and So's have invited us to their home for dinner, and they said to bring Edith along if she's not doing anything."

Abby, would you consider that a proper invitation? When I tell my sister that I don't, she says, "It's good enough. People don't send engraved invitations for dinner."

Abby, would you accept one of those "bring Edith" invitations or not?

EDITH

DEAR EDITH: A "bring Edith" invitation is more than most widows who live with their sisters receive. I appreciate your sensitivity, but if I were you, I'd go and have a good time.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to ABBY: Box 69700, L.A., Calif. 90069. Enclose stamped, self addressed envelope, please.

White Oak Grove Methodist Church setting for marriage

White Oak Grove Methodist Church was the setting for the wedding of Mrs. Julie Wright Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wright, 12 Hali Drive, and Thomas R. Payton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Payton, 6065 Miami Trace Rd. SW.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Randy Lowe at 7:30 p.m. Dec. 2.

Music by the Country Knights before the wedding and accompanying the groom as he sang selections that were meaningful to him and his bride, enhanced the ceremony.

The bride wore an old-fashioned gown of ivory satin with high neckline and yoke of Cluny lace. The long sleeves ended in ruffle of lace over the hands. Her chapel train also had a deep ruffle edged in lace. Her bouquet was holly and one ivory rose. In her hair she wore a cap-like arrangement of holly, baby's breath and bridal satin ribbon.

Mrs. Lonnie Wilson, matron of honor, wore an orchid chiffon gown trimmed in lace at the empire waist and long full sleeves. She wore a sprig of holly in her hair and carried holly and an ivory rose.

Attending the groom as best man was Rick Watson.

Hostesses for the reception held in the church basement were Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mrs. John Byron, Mrs. Martin Smith and Mrs. Larry Evans. Tammy Payton sister of the groom, presided at the guest book.

Several pre-nuptial parties were planned for the couple, including the rehearsal dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Payton.

The new Mrs. Payton, a graduate of Washington Senior High School, is employed at Super-X Drugstore. Her husband, a Miami Trace High School graduate, is employed by Calmar Division of Diamond International Corp.

After several days wedding trip through southern Ohio and Kentucky the newlywed couple are at home at 5742 Miami Trace Road, SW.

Delta Kappa Gamma committed to Christmas traditions

The Delta Kappa Gamma Society met at the Terrace Lounge for the annual Christmas dinner meeting. Mrs. Elizabeth Fullerton gave the invocation.

After dinner, Mrs. Joan Rhoads, the program chairman, introduced the singing group, "Reflection," from Grace United Methodist Church. The group is composed of high school students from Miami Trace and Washington City Schools. Mrs. Rhoads and Mrs. Karen Burke are the co-directors. Christmas carols sung by the group had traditional words, but the music was contemporary. Among their songs were: "Joy to the World" and "Silent Night," with the music written by Joyce Eilers, who writes music for schools. "Tambourine Noel" featured Shelley Dove on the tambourine. Robin Brakeall sang, "Some Children See Him," and Johnny Bill Rhoads sang the old familiar song from World War II, "I'll Be Home for Christmas."

Mrs. Rhoads then asked members to think of traditions of the Christmas season that they especially remembered. Mrs. Althea Case gave an interesting account of the Wassailing parties which were given by her father, Mr. Carl J. Kay, who taught school for many years in Washington C.H. The parties began in 1924 and continued for many years with Mr. Kay's students and former students looking forward to the annual traditional event.

Miss Kathleen Davis remembered the Messiah concerts which were given for many years in the Methodist Church under the direction of Ralph Lloyd with Miss Marian Christopher at the organ.

Other members recalled Cherry Hill's tradition of putting stained glass pictures in the windows and lighting the trees on the lawn.

Other remembrances were of caroling, lighting real candles on the tree, and having a special German food which was made only at Christmas. The traditions one has meant so much because they recall memories of days that were important.

A gift exchange of handmade items was held following the program. Each member also brought a small gift of clothing for a child which is to be distributed by the Church Women United.

Mrs. Jane Riley, president, presented every member present with a lovely hand made calico wreath to be used as a Christmas tree decoration.

Jeff DAR holiday meeting held in the Cline home

Mrs. Charles Cline was hostess to the members of the William Horney Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution of Jeffersonville for the Christmas meeting.

Mrs. Eugene Avey introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Richard Crabtree, pastor of the Church of Christ, in Jeffersonville, who spoke on the subject "The Greatest Gift." Mr. Crabtree spoke of Christmas and as it draws near one thinks of a gift, but the birth of Jesus was the greatest gift from God to all, he said. He praised the chapter for their interest in the Memorial Day observance.

Mrs. Norman Wissinger, Regent, opened the meeting in ritualistic form assisted by the chaplain, Mrs. John Sheeley, Mrs. Otis Thompson, flag chairman, led the Pledge of Allegiance. The singing of the first stanza of the National Anthem was led by Mrs. Earl Glass, and The American's Creed was read by the group.

Mrs. Max Morrow read the president general's message; the state regent's message was read by Mrs. Glass.

Mrs. Avey, national defense chairman, read "Washington Crossing the Delaware" from the American Crisis, written by Thomas Paine, 1776.

Twenty were present and Mrs. Cline read minutes of the preceding meeting. In the absence of Mrs. Marvin Stockwell, treasurer, Mrs. Cline gave the report. On display were many interesting items for sale by the Junior DAR members, with Mrs. Mark Beam as chairman.

A Christmas greeting to the members was read from Mrs. Earl Hite. The Bicentennial thought was read by Mrs. Louis Ulen, Mrs. C.S. Kelley, chairman of service for veteran patients, gave an interesting report of the many gifts from the chapter delivered to the veterans at the VA Hospital, Chillicothe, recently. Beanies, jiffy bags, softbacked books, magazines, Christmas gifts for the veterans and cookies. Those accompanying Mrs. Kelley were Mrs. Ulen, Mrs. Wissinger, Mrs. Harold Zimmerman, and Mrs. Harold Cline. They spent 25 hours at work in the gift shop at the hospital.

Delegates elected to Continental Congress, April, 1977, are Mrs. Wissinger, Regent, and Mrs. Richard Craig. Alternates are Mrs. Ulen, Mrs. Avey, Mrs. Charles Cline and Mrs. Harold Cline.

Hostesses assisting Mrs. Cline were Mrs. Harold Cline, Miss Helen Fults, Mrs. Earl Hite, Mrs. Dale Horney, Mrs. Dale Kirk, Mrs. Francis Gillespie, Mrs. Howard Thompson, Mrs. Charles Mallow, Mrs. Harry Elliott and Mrs. Alex Smith.

During the social hour a dessert course suggestive of the Christmas season was served.

Mrs. Kenneth Miller and Mrs. Jack Flax of Washington C.H. and Mrs. Damon Merritt of Bloomington, motored to Wellston on Tuesday, where they were the guests of Mrs. George McKinniss at a luncheon held in the Wellston Presbyterian Church. They presented the program for the Women's Study Club and were assisted by William Werner of Wellston.

Panthers staff honored at party

The High School Youth Group of the South Side Church of Christ, was host at a carry-in dinner Saturday evening honoring the Miami Trace Football Team, the Cheerleaders, and the Coaches and their wives. The tables were decorated with black and white streamers down the center, gold napkins and place mats. Trophies and gold footballs decorated the speaker's table. Pictures of the team and other clippings from our local newspaper concerning their winning season and honors bestowed on them decorated the wall. A huge gold crown centered the display. A large panther with the current statistics listed beneath, also was in full view.

Following the bountiful dinner, Mr. Charles Starkey served as Master of Ceremonies, and introduced Mr. Danny Dodds, minister of the Greenfield Church of Christ, as speaker of the evening. Mr. Dodds compared the game of football to the game of life. He stressed that, just as the football player must condition his body, so must one be concerned about conditioning his body for service. The conditioning program should include: dedication, sacrifice, and, the Pittsburgh Steelers motto, "Whatever it takes."

Mr. Charles Richmond gave the closing prayer.

The kitchen committee was com-

Persinger Hall setting for yule party

Persinger Hall of First Presbyterian Church was the setting for the Marguerite Class Christmas party. The large Christmas tree which had been decorated with original handmade ornaments and colorful lights, added to the festivities and atmosphere of the evening.

The sixteen members and the teacher, with one guest, Mrs. Alice Decker, were seated at long tables highlighted with poinsettias, red candles in green holders and clever handmade napkin rings as favors made by Mrs. Dorothy Dellinger, president.

Mrs. Marguerite Jenkins gave the invocation preceding the buffet dinner, which was served from a gaily decorated table. Mrs. Dellinger presided at the short business meeting and read "Christmas Comes at Different Times."

The report of the pecan sale was made by Mrs. William Rogers who stated there are a few pounds left. Reports were read and approved.

Mrs. Rogers gave the devotions reading "The Cradle" from Ideals - the Christmas Story, in the Book of Luke and closed with a prayer.

The officers were hostesses for the dinner - Mrs. Leonard Dellinger, Mrs. Frank Dellinger, and Mrs. Fulton Alkire.

The assistant officers will be hostesses for the January meeting.

Girl Scouts

Junior Girl Scout Troop 1056 entered the float in the Christmas Parade and won second place for the most original design. Greetings to them!

On the first of the month the Girl Scouts turned in money which was proceeds from the annual GS Calendar sale. The girls sold 125 calendars, and Troop 877 of Milledgeville sold 80.

On Dec. 8, Mrs. Vi Bulger was hostess at a luncheon in Chillicothe for all leaders of Fayette County and area GS troops. She also conducted a dance and song session to train GS in their own troops. All were sorry to hear of the news of her retirement, planned in four months. She will be available for consultation, and has given 30 years of service to Girl Scouting.

The troops wish to say "Merry Christmas" to everyone and a "Happy New Year."

Following rural accident

Motorcyclist in 'fair' condition

Following his involvement in a Tuesday afternoon motorcycle accident, a Mount Sterling man is listed in "fair" condition in Fayette County Memorial Hospital, according to Fayette County sheriff's deputies.

Traveling north on Ohio 207, John P. White, 29, of Mount Sterling, was in the process of rounding a curve located about a half mile north of the Cook-Yankee Road when he lost control of his motorcycle, sheriff's deputies stated.

The motorcycle traveled off the left side of the road, throwing White to the ground in the process. The 4:20 p.m. Tuesday accident resulted in severe damage to the motorcycle, sheriff's deputies reported.

A truck driven by Larry L.

Lauderbaugh, 34, of Danville, was northwest bound on U.S. 35-NW when it reportedly attempted to pass a pickup truck traveling ahead that was in the process of turning left onto the Milledgeville-Octa Road at 9:20 a.m. Tuesday.

The truck struck the pickup truck driven by John H. Queen, 22, of 1140 Campbell St., and then continued off the road on the left side, sheriff's deputies said, striking seven rods of fence and posts belonging to the V.R. McCoy estate, Washington C.H.

Both vehicles sustained moderate damage.

POLICE

TUESDAY, 10:09 p.m.—In the process of backing his truck on Ev's Food Store parking lot, Columbus

Avenue, Harry Hayslip Jr., 47, of Mount Sterling, reportedly struck a car stopped behind his vehicle. Both the truck and the car, driven by Vivian I. Smith, 45, of 1203 Gregg St., were slightly damaged.

3:42 p.m.—Backing from a parking space in front of the Washington Senior High School, a car driven by Lora L. White, 39, of Greenfield, struck a car parked behind it belonging to Pamela J. Heiney, 27, of 532 W. Market St., police officers said. Both cars received slight damage.

11:03 a.m.—Traveling east on E. Market St., a truck driven by James A. Stewart, 66, of 834 Willard St., was turning left into a private drive in the 100 block when it reportedly struck a car proceeding west on Market Street.

The car, driven by Mary A. Cox, 65, of Lakeview Ave., incurred moderate damage, while Stewart's truck was slightly damaged. He was cited for failing to yield to an oncoming vehicle.

9:25 a.m.—A car driven by Cynthia L. Blizard, 20, of 7637 Camp Grove Road, attempted to make a right turn on red, police officers said, and sideswiped a car traveling north on Fayette Street. The other car was driven by Betty L. McQuinn, 55, U.S. 35, and it was moderately damaged. Ms. Blizard was charged with a red light violation, and her car received slight damage.

8:55 a.m.—Backing from a parking space in the 100 block of N. Main Street, a truck driven by Ralph L. Cook, 48, of 1229 High St., reportedly struck a truck proceeding northbound on Main Street. The other truck was driven by Marlin C. McGuire, 38, of Chillicothe, and both vehicles incurred slight damage. Cook was charged with backing without safety.

Costly cooking oil blaze extinguished

A costly cooking oil fire was extinguished Tuesday by Washington C.H. firemen.

Firemen said that heated cooking oil in the kitchen of the Horace K. Wilson residence, 530 Mayfair Drive, caught fire at 6:40 p.m. Tuesday. The flames reportedly spread to surrounding structures in the kitchen, causing an estimated $2,000 in damages.

Water from a pumper truck was used by firemen to douse the blaze.

By The Associated Press

Temperatures have begun to moderate across Ohio after an unseasonably chilly three weeks.

Lows fell only into the upper 20s and 30s overnight, well above normal for this time of the year.

Some sunshine was to prevail across the state today, combining with southerly breezes to push afternoon readings into the 40s. Cloudiness will increase tonight and a few scattered light flurries will move into the state Thursday under the influence of a weak front expected to move through Ohio tonight and early Thursday.

Temperatures tonight will be about the same as this morning's. Highs Thursday will be a bit cooler than today's, reaching the upper 30s and 40s—about normal for mid-December.

Furrier gives advice on theft

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A furrier has this advice to the girlfriend of the thief who broke a show window and took a fur this weekend: "Bring the mink back," he said in a newspaper ad. "If it doesn't fit properly, no one will believe it came from the store."

The ad also admonishes: "Quit going with that guy. Anyone who would steal a coat...is just too dumb for someone like you."

State park fee increases set

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Price increases will go into effect at state-operated parks on Jan. 1, according to the Ohio Department of Natural Resources.

Fee hikes for rental of state-operated cabins, camping areas, boat docks and for use of golfing facilities were set by the Ohio Department of Natural Resources' Division of Parks and Recreation following a public hearing in Columbus last May.

Price increases will not apply to cabins operated for the Ohio Department of Natural Resources by Ohio Inns, Inc.

Under the Parks and Recreation Division's administrative rules, fee increases for rental of state-operated park cabins include:

- Off-season rates for rental of deluxe cabins at Cowan, Dillon, Hocking Hills, Lake Hope, Mohican, Pike Lake and Pymatuning state parks will be $130 a week, up from $120, or $32.50 a day, up from $30, through March 31.
- During the regular season beginning April 1 deluxe cabins will rent for $165 a week or $37.50 a day, an increase of $10 a week and $2.50 a day.
- Standard housekeeping cabins at Lake Hope, Pike Lake and Pymatuning state parks, which are available April 1 through Oct. 31, will cost $130 a week or $27 a day, an increase of $13 a week and $2 a day.
- At South Bass Island State Park, standard housekeeping cabins will rent for $105 a week or $21 a day for two bedrooms and $85 a week or $16 a day for a one-bedroom cabin. The new rates at South Bass are up $5 a week and $1 a day from last year's rates. South Bass cabins will be open May 1 through Oct. 1.
- The three-bedroom cabins at Geneva State Park will cost Ohioans $5 a week and $1 a day more than last year. Geneva cabins, open May 1 to Oct. 1, will rent for $135 a week or $27 a night.
- The deluxe cabin at Deer Creek STATE PARK will cost $250 a week, up from $225, or $45 a day, up from $40.
- Rates for sleeping cabins at Lake Hope State Park will increase $5 a week and $2 a day. The new rates include $85 a week of $17 a day for a one-bedroom cabin, $95 a week or $19 a day for two bedrooms and $115 a week or $23 a day for a three-bedroom cabin. Rental of a four-bedroom cabin at Lake Hope will cost $135 a week or $27 a day.

— A $5 surcharge will apply to one-night-only rentals on all state-operated cabins.

A $10 deposit is required to reserve cabins operated by the Ohio Department of Natural Resources. Written notice 15 days prior to scheduled arrival date is required for return of the deposit if the reservation is cancelled.

In addition to price increases for boat dock rentals and for golfing facilities, fees for camping areas will go up 25 cents across the board. The 25-cent increase for camping areas does not apply to group rates for youths.

Facilities at the 18-hole golf courses at Hueston Woods, Salt Fork and Punderson state parks will cost an additional 50 cents for nine and 18 holes of golf. Golfers will be paying $4 for nine holes, $5 for 18 holes on weekdays or $6 for 18 holes on weekends or holidays.

With the 50-cent price increase at Shawnee, golfers will be paying $3 for nine holes and $4 for 18 holes of golf.

Season boat dock rentals will cost $85, up $10 from last year's fee, a tie-up stakes will rent for $15, a $2 increase.

Senior citizens participating in the "Golden Buckeye Card" program will continue to receive a 50 per cent reduction on camping fees Sunday through Thursday night and on golfing costs Monday through Friday.

Golden Buckeye Card members will also receive a 30 per cent discount on cabin rentals Sunday through Thursday night from Nov. 1 to March 31. Card holders will pay $91 a week or $22.75 a night, up from $84 a week and $21 a day. Full rates apply on Friday and Saturday nights and from April 1 through Oct. 31.

Swimmers at John Bryan State Park or Hocking Hills Dining Lodge swimming pools will also pay higher rates. Swimming facilities will cost adults 85 cents and youths 40 cents a day, an increase of 10 and 5 cents respectively.

Free enterprise system topic at Rotary meeting

The free enterprise system in the U.S. was the topic discussed at the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Washington C.H. Rotary Club Tuesday in the Country Club.

Perse Harlow, a member of the Rotary Club's public relations committee, quoted a number of business leaders and attempted to show the general misconception about the U.S. free enterprise system.

Harlow, owner of Harlow business Service, 320 N. Main St., referred to Public opinion polls which disclosed that the public believes that U.S. corporations earn from 28 to 60 per cent profit on sales when the actual figure is closer to five per cent.

He also said a recent Gallup Poll indicated showed the majority of U.S. college students do not understand the nation's economic system.

"It's (the free enterprise system) not all that perfect, but it has brought a better way of life for more families than any other system in the world," Harlow stated.

After challenging fellow Rotary Club members to correct existing problems and insure the survival of the free enterprise system, Harlow said the system "offers the greatest opportunity for each American to realize his or her maximum potential."

During the meeting conducted by club president Dr. George Pommert, a new member was inducted.

Allen Mossbarger, 232 Kathryn Court, was inducted after being sponsored for membership by Don Kirk. Mossbarger is a local State Farm Insurance Co. agent.

Chris Schlichter of Miami Trace High School was a student guest and visiting Rotarians were James Tootle Jr., of Chillicothe, and Merrill Kaufman, of Delaware.

Start a BancOhio Individual Retirement Account now.

If you don't have a qualified retirement or profit-sharing plan where you work, open a BancOhio Individual Retirement Account (IRA). It'll earn a 7.9% annual yield through daily compounding of 7.5% annual interest.

Start your IRA for as little as $25, then deposit any amount, any time. You can deposit as much as 15% of your annual earned income, up to $1,500 each year ($3,000 if both husband and wife qualify).

Every dollar you deposit is tax deductible.

It doesn't matter whether you itemize or take the standard deduction. Even your interest is tax free until you begin withdrawals (when you will probably be in a lower tax bracket). At age 59½, you can start withdrawing while funds remaining on deposit continue to yield 7.9% annually. (Regulations require that withdrawals begin by age 70½.)

There are no service charges, no commissions.

No matter how big or small your IRA, there's no charge. And we'll mail regular reports to keep you up to date. To learn more about the BancOhio Individual Retirement Account, contact any of our offices.

All deposits made before December 31 will become deductions on your 1976 Federal income tax return. That way you'll be contributing to your IRA instead of paying the IRS!

The difference between taxable savings and a BancOhio IRA.

If you deposit $1,500 each year:

After	Taxable Savings Program	Individual Retirement Account	The Difference with IRA
5 years	$ 6,710	$ 9,480	$ 2,770
10 years	15,650	23,340	7,690
15 years	27,580	43,610	16,030
20 years	43,510	73,250	29,740
25 years	64,690	116,610	51,920
30 years	92,980	180,020	87,040

"Taxable Savings Program" is based on 7.5% annual interest compounded daily to yield 7.9% annually, less taxes. IRA column is based on same rates, but taxes are deferred. Figures assume 25% income tax bracket with deposits made at beginning of year. Substantial interest penalties required for premature withdrawals. Interest rates subject to change.

Employee assistance program eyed

The Fayette County Alcohol Advisory Council met Tuesday at the Fayette County Health Department for its second meeting. Registered nurses Phyllis Richards and Blanche Johnston presided over the meeting in the absence of chairman Dr. Robert U. Anderson.

New members of the council were introduced. They are Paul Crosby, Downtown Drug Co.; Susan Link, Ohio Bell Telephone Co.; George Malek, executive vice president of the Washington C.H. Area Chamber of Commerce, and James Kiger, a local attorney.

The council discussed the employee assistance program, which was presented in detail at the last council meeting by Robert Partridge, a representative of the Central Ohio

Regional Consultant Agency (CORCA). Mrs. Johnston said that there are approximately 35 industries in the area which must be approached concerning the implementation of the plan. She has visited some of the industries and has presented the idea of unit management approach to alcoholism to management personnel.

Mrs. Johnston said that the Ohio Department of Health could make available several consultants to start the employee assistance program if any of the industries were interested.

Malek suggested that an effective way to introduce the employee assistance program to the community would be by scheduling consultants to speak before local organizations, or at the monthly meetings of the Chamber manufacturers council. Plans were made to pursue Malek's suggestion.

Mrs. Richards reviewed the council's proposed policies which were accepted unanimously. In the future, the council will be composed of 12 individuals, each serving a term of three years and eligible to serve two consecutive terms. Council members will be representing a wide spectrum of the community, with a doctor, lawyer, industry and business representative on the council. The council will act as a liaison between the local alcohol program and the health department. At a later date, the selection of a new council will be done by a committee chosen by the chairman of the council.

Robert L. Kunz, administrator of Fayette County Memorial Hospital, and Mrs. Link, were appointed to the Community wide plan committee. The council outlined the top priorities of the committee. The Rev. Ralph Wolford, who said that he is interested in nipping the problem (of alcoholism) before it becomes a problem, suggested that an educational program, dealing with alcoholism, be instituted into the school system. Virginia Essman, of the Fayette County Welfare Department, recommended that someone from the school become a member of the council.

The possibility of creating a DWI school in this area, such as the one in Franklin County, was suggested. Mrs. Johnston said that she had met with a DWI school instructor who said that he would be glad to come to Fayette County and explain the program.

Kunz talked about the Alcohol Council's, and the hospital's, future plans of creating a detoxification center in Fayette County, which would be housed at the hospital. Kunz, who said that such a center would require an isolated area within the hospital, as well as additional beds, remarked "There are a lot of ramifications. Right now, we wouldn't have the facilities for such a center, but down the line, I can see it. But, it's not the type of thing you do overnight."

Kunz pointed out that the key problem in creating a center, is funding. "If adequate funding can be arrived at, I think the detox-center could be a reality."

Mrs. Richards and Homer Miller both said that the alcoholism program in Fayette County may be allotted a specific amount of money next year.

Miami Trace 'Seniors of the Week'

By KATHY JUNK

Christy Tarbutton is our first featured senior this week. She lives at 548 Brentwood Drive with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tarbutton.

This year in school she is taking Government, Symphonic Choir, Advanced Math, Mythology, Typing I, Family Living, Clothing, and Composition.

Her activities this year and in years past include being an office assistant, cheerleading for four years of which she was captain for three years, Student Council for four years and secretary of it for two years, National Honor Society, 4-H for five years, FHA and AFS for two years, and a Buckeye Girl's State delegate. In her spare time she likes to sew, swim, meet new people, and dance.

Since Christy is quite an accomplished dancer, she is planning to major in choreography at Ohio State University or the University of Cincinnati, and also to teach at summer cheerleading camps.

Christy's advice to the underclassmen is, "Make the most of everything you do now; for all too soon, it's only a big group of memories. Make your memories happy ones."

A new face at Miami Trace this year is Marilyn Seifried who is involved in the FFA program here. She resides at 1894 Flakes Ford Road with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Walter Seifried.

Her courses include Bookkeeping I, Advanced Animal Science, Farm Management, Composition, Speed Reading-Media, Art I, International Studies, British Literature and Government. She is a member of AFS, Y-Teens, FFA, and FTA. Marilyn has been a Campfire Girl for 10 years, in 4-H sewing clubs for three years and livestock clubs for four years, and a Junior Leadership member for four years. She enjoys singing in her church choir and working in the Bible school.

Marilyn likes to raise and work with hogs. So, she plans to further her education at Ohio State University and work in the swine industry. This past summer she was the Fayette County Pork Queen. She also likes to sew, cook, crochet and be outdoors.

Marilyn advised the underclassmen, "When you have done your best, there is no more that can be asked of you."

Singing the national anthem for the Panther Varsity basketball home games has been the highlight of Cindi Grover's years at Miami Trace. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Grover and lives at 2906 Parrott Station Road.

Cindi's subjects are Sociology, Composition, Family Living, American Literature, Psychology, Government, Typing, Symphonic Choir, and Marching Band. Her activities through the years have been Folksingers, FHA, Dramatic Arts, National Honor Society, Pep, Symphonic, and Stage bands, morning announcer, Ambitious Farmers 4-H Club, and the Ohio Dorset Queen for 1976. She is a member of Grace United Methodist Church and serves on the youth Council.

Cindi's speciality is showing sheep. She likes to meet interesting people throughout the country by showing purebred Dorset sheep. She is more interested in singing, though, and she plans to attend Ohio State University and major in vocal music.

Cindy Baird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Baird, resides at Route 1, Greenfield.

She is taking Speech, Psychology, Composition, Government, Journalism, Family Living, Accounting, and Physiology. Cindy is active in 4-H by being in Junior Leadership and on the Junior Fairboard. She is also a drill team co-captain, Mitra yearbook editor, a member of "Who's Who" and president of the student AFS club. She enjoys sewing, showing Angus cattle, and relaxing.

Cindy's plan for the future is to attend the Ohio State University School of Nursing.

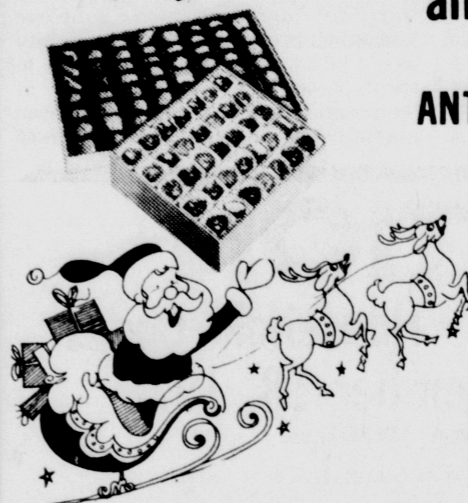

Her advice to underclassmen was for them to become involved because their four years will go very fast. Being a part of AFS and meeting all the interesting people from foreign countries has highlighted Cindy's years at Miami Trace.

Students ready for annual Christmas trip to island

By BRET LONGBERRY
"Andros, here we come!" That's the type of talk heard around Miami Trace these days as the high school's Field Studies members prepare for their second annual trip to Andros Island in

The Bahamas.
The group under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gass will leave Fayette County at 3 p.m. Thursday on a 12-day trek.
Seven actual days will be spent on the island, where 17 Miami Trace students and eight Washington Senior High School students will study tidal changes, animals, sand, and other environmental aspects of the island. They will also be studying the life styles and customs of the people living there. The highlight of the stay on the island will be participating in the Bahamian's Christmas Eve worship.

Before arriving on the island, the group will spend a day at Disney World in Florida. Other stops planned during the trip include a visit to Corkscrew Swamp, Blue Springs State Park to see the endangered manatee, a large sea mammal; and a fossil shark tooth stop in Venice, Fla.

Staff members for this trip besides Mr. and Mrs. Gass will be Bob Spengler and Dan Ondrejko. Joining the group on the island will be Frank Huss.

This trip marks the fifth in the history of the Field Studies club. The group was formed two years ago and has journeyed across the American Southwest and Northwest, to Mammoth Cave in Kentucky, and to Andros Island.

MT sets Christmas concert

By KIM CONLEY
Well it's that time of year again, snow, twinkling lights and beautiful carols are filling the night. And keeping right in time with this glorious season, this year's Miami Trace High School vocal and band presentation promises to be the best ever.

All four of the choruses at Miami Trace will be doing traditional and modern Yule songs Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. The band will be featuring a narrated

Christmas fantasy and will be joining Folksingers, Symphonic, and Concert Choirs to perform the old favorite "Sleigh Ride."

But the highlight and finale of the show will be the combined choruses performing the touching "Oh Holy Night."

So come on out and get into the Christmas spirit. It will be a night filled with music and an experience not soon to be forgotten.

Santa and the Giant Fighter

Synopsis: When the Fairy Queen says Goko will be slain by the light of the moon the giant captures the moon and hides it in a cave with a dragon to guard it.

BILLY MEETS THE DRAGON

The cave where the moon was hidden was three miles beneath the ground. To reach it one had to travel through miles and miles of tunnel and would round and round and round like a circular staircase leading to the center of the earth.

Billy the Giant Fighter started down the tunnel. It was very dark. He felt his way along the sides of the tunnel. It was dank and oozy and cold. Something dripped on his head and a cobweb drifted against his face.

He clutched his wooden sword and began to run. The tunnel grew smaller. Billy bent lower and lower until, first, he was on his hands and knees and, finally, he was squirming along on his stomach.

He wanted to shout for help but he could hardly breathe. Who would have heard him anyway? Santa had gone back to Santa Land and ahead of the boy was he knew not what.

He shut his eyes and inched along pushing his wooden sword in front of him. When he opened his eyes he saw a dim blue light ahead. Moments later he came into a brightly lit cave. Fingers of ice dripped from the ceiling. Daggers of stones jutted up from the floor. A dozen tunnels led out of the cave. Billy did not know which one to take. He did not even know which one had led him there.

He sat down on a slimy rock pile and wondered what on earth to do. He had never felt so lost and alone.

But he was not really alone. Someone yanked at his sleeve and a whiskered old gnome said, "Are you the boy who fights giants?"

"How did you know?" cried Billy.

"All the Little Folk know," grunted the gnome.

He told Billy there were many, many caves under the mountain and the gnomes had lived in them for a thousand years. But since Goko the giant had hidden the moon in the bottom-most cave all the gnomes had fled because they were very afraid of the giant.

"I am the last to leave," said the old gnome. He sniffed a little. It was all very sad, he said, and he couldn't help crying because he did not see how a mere boy could slay the wicked giant even if he managed to set free the moon.

"I can try," said Billy bravely. "Will you show me the tunnel that leads to the bottom-most cave?"

"Not the tunnel!" exclaimed the gnome. "You must take the Gnome-Go-Bucket. I have stayed here to show it to you."

"Are you the boy who fights giants?"

He pulled a huge rock slab from the wall. There was a little closet and hanging in the closet was a silver bucket.

"Get in," said the gnome. "Push the button. It's like any other elevator."

Billy climbed in the bucket. There was a row of buttons on the handle. He pushed the bottom one.

The Go-Bucket went clinking, clackety-clackety, slam banging, smackety-rackety, whop, crump, bang, smash, down through the earth and it wasn't like any other elevator in the whole wide world.

It finally came to a stop, turned on its side and dumped Billy out in the dimly lighted cave where the dragon was guarding the captured moon.

Billy leaped to his feet. His knees shook and his heart pounded at the sight of the hideous beast.

The monster rose on his rear legs, thumped his huge tail and opened his massive jaws.

Billy tried to cry out, "Stay back!" Unfortunately he had lost his voice from fright and not a sound came out of his mouth.

Tomorrow: The Magic Words.

Recovery findings announced

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Unallowable expenditures from student activity funds resulted in findings for recovery totaling $2,536 in an audit of the Southwest Local school district in Hamilton County, the state auditor's office reported.

Of that amount, findings for recovery totaled $2,029 against Harrison High School personnel and represented unallowable expenditures for food and gifts and unauthorized payments to athletic personnel for meetings.

Ferguson said all findings in the school district audit, for the period July 1, 1972 to Dec. 31, 1975, were in favor of accounts from which the money was misspent.

In another audit, eight findings for recovery totaling $4,680 were reported in an audit of the Medina County Park District.

The auditor also said that the audit, conducted for Jan. 1, 1972 to March 31, 1976, showed that no receipts were issued for money received by the district and an improper receipts journal was maintained.

The examiner also noted that former district Director Barry Muha entered into lease and note agreements for the district, contrary to state law which gives that authority to the park board.

The largest finding was against the Board of Park Commissioners in the amount of $1,384 for payment of interest on a 1974 note with 1975 funds. The examiner said the money should have been appropriated in 1974.

By JAY SHARRUTT
AP Television Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — It's not been a good season for new series. Of 14 shows the television networks have axed since September, 11 were new entries in the hotly contested 1976-77 season.

The latest casualty, the hourlong "Gibbsville" series about newspapering in Pennsylvania, had been on the air only since Nov. 11. NBC says the show will depart come mid-season.

The news came Tuesday as both NBC and CBS, fighting to catch up with ABC in the ratings, made public their midseason lineups that call for six new series — four on CBS, two on NBC — to air early next year.

NBC's "Quincy," a new medic-detective series that was a segment of the network's "Sunday Mystery Movie" this season, also got weekly status, scheduled for Thursday nights on an unspecified date in February.

In addition to dropping "Gibbsville," NBC said it was axing television's only Western, the new "Quest" series. It had confirmed trade reports of that show's demise last Dec. 7.

NBC's two new series, each an hour in length, are "Nightmare," a suspense anthology program for Wednesdays, starting Feb. 2, and "Fantastic Journey," a Thursday science-fantasy that starts Feb. 3.

Two new CBS shows are comedies. They are "A Year at the Top," a Norman Lear series about an aged music group that makes a deal with the devil for youth and success. The other show, which premieres on Monday, Jan. 17, is "On Your Own," a domestic comedy.

In readying for midseason combat with top-ranked ABC, CBS, whose ratings have been unexpectedly low most of this season, also massively re-juggled its prime-time program schedule for next January.

It put seven returning series in new time periods, changing the current schedule on every night but Thursday and Saturday.

Meanwhile, the latest A.C. Nielsen ratings say an estimated 22 million television sets were tuned to ABC's "Happy Days" last week, making the 1950s-era comedy the most-watched show on network television.

Last week's 20 most-watched programs, according to the Nielsen survey, were "Happy Days," "Laverne and Shirley," "Charlie's Angels" and "Six Million Dollar Man," all on ABC; "M-A-S-H," CBS; "The Carpenters," ABC; "60 Minutes," "All in the Family," "Johnny Cash Special" and "The Waltons," CBS; "ABC Monday Night Football"; "One Day at a Time," CBS; "Sanford and Son" and "Chico and the Man," NBC; "Rudolph's Shiny New Year," "Christmas in Disneyland" and "Friday Movie," ABC; "Phyllis," CBS; "Little House on the Prairie," NBC; and "Rhoda," CBS.

At one time when interurban electric lines spread a network across Ohio, Lima and Norwalk ranked among the five leading interurban centers in the world based on the number of cars leaving and arriving.

GM sees record sales in 1977

DETROIT (AP) — As the auto industry reported its strongest sales pace for an early December in seven years, General Motors Corp. on Tuesday predicted record U.S. car and truck sales in 1977.

In contrast to trimmed forecasts issued recently by other automakers, GM Chairman Thomas A. Murphy said he was raising his estimate 250,000 units to nearly 14.8 million domestic and imported sales next year.

The current record of 14.6 million vehicles came in 1973 and was followed by a severe two-year recession.

Murphy also announced a record $3 billion in capital expenditures planned for 1977, up 25 per cent from an estimated $2.4 billion spent for facilities and tools this year.

"We have made this commitment to growth because we are convinced the prospects for the economy and the automobile industry in the year ahead are very favorable," he said. "Our confidence has not been diminished at all, nor has the consumer's confidence, which is all important."

Meanwhile, the four U.S. automakers reported car sales during the Dec. 1-10 period totaled 211,528, up 1 per cent from a year ago. The daily rate of 23,503 units was the highest for the period since 1969.

"It's not a spectacular performance, but it's good for this time of year and shows considerable improvement over the daily tempo we'd expect," said one industry analyst.

Ironically, GM, which has been leading the industry's recovery, reported a 1 per cent decline in early December sales from a year ago, its first period decline since August 1975. GM blamed the drop on a Chevrolet dealer contest a year ago which produced strong sales, adding that sales in the full month would be "considerably better" than last year.

Ford Motor Co. reported a 5 per cent

sales gain for the period, its first increase since mid-September, when it was struck for 28 days by the United Auto Workers.

Chrysler Corp., which reported a 9 per cent increase, said Tuesday it was revising its assembly schedules for January to increase light duty truck and sport utility model production. It also said it would close two plants the week of Jan. 3 to balance inventories of its Volare and Aspen models.

American Motors Corp. posted a 23 per cent sales decline for the early December period. Small-car specialist AMC, which has been in a deep slump all year, said Gremlin and Pacer sales in the past month have gone up 19 per cent over the previous month because of a $253 price cut and rebates.

For the year-to-date, industry sales are up 22 per cent from 1975. Chrysler is up 31 per cent, GM 27 per cent and Ford 13 per cent, while AMC was off 24 per cent.

Murphy said domestic and foreign vehicle sales in the United States this year would total 13.3 million, up 20 per cent from 1975. He predicted car sales next year would be 11.25 million and trucks 3.5 million, compared with estimated 1976 sales of 10.1 million cars and a record 3.2 million trucks. He said import car sales this year would total about 1.5 million and be about the same in 1977.

Traffic Court

Two traffic charges were heard Tuesday in Washington C.H. Municipal Court. Judge John P. Case presided.

James A. Sutton, 58, of New Holland, was fined $150, sentenced to three days in jail and had his driver's license suspended for 30 days for driving while under the influence of alcohol.

For driving an unsafe vehicle, Douglas E. Fitch, 20, of Sabina, was fined $30. He was fined $30 for failing to transfer the registration of a motor vehicle.

Boy's case unresolved

CINCINNATI (AP) — The case of a 10-year-old Forest Park, Ohio, boy convicted of shooting a dog and firing into a crowd of students in a school yard, remains unresolved in Hamilton County Juvenile Court.

"There are few options open to the court when the child is that young, other than placing him in a foster home," said a juvenile court spokesman.

The child's parents voluntarily admitted the boy to Longview State Hospital for psychiatric treatment.

Forest Park police said the boy broke into a home Nov. 2 and stole a rifle and ammunition. He then fired three shots at a German shepherd dog, breaking its leg, police said. Two blocks away, the boy allegedly fired a fourth shot into a crowd of 40 children during recess at Forest Park Elementary School. None of them was injured, according to police.

A poem, "Anthony and Cleopatra," once recited by school pupils across America, was written by William H. Lytle, 1826-1863, of Cincinnati, Ohio, a Civil War general killed leading a charge at Chickamauga.

Hurricane leaves Lions out in cold

By MARK REA
Record-Herald Sports Editor

The chilling winds of a Wilmington Hurricane dealt the Washington C.H. Blue Lions an agonizingly slow destruction as the Hurricane took sole possession of first place in the South Central Ohio League.

The Lions stayed close throughout the first half but were outscored 13-6 in the third quarter and the fourth quarter made the evening a long one for Washington.

Court House, who was averaging 89 points a game, could manage only half that amount in the stinging 64-41 loss. The Hurricane's cold winds turned the usually hot shooting hands of the Lions into icy stubs as Court House shot a miserable 28.5 per cent from the field. "We didn't play our game because they wouldn't let us," lamented Lion head coach Gary Shaffer. "They got back too fast on defense and took the (fast) break away. And we couldn't make anything the second half."

Washington was actually close at halftime, 23-22. But, the presence of 6-2 junior Gary Williams under the basket smashed the Lions' hopes for a second half comeback.

Williams, who led the game with 20 rebounds, positioned himself under the offensive boards and tipped balls in the bucket to the tune of 22 points.

The first half looked like a game played in slow motion. Neither team took a decided advantage as they both played give-away. The teams flashed moments of good play, but the moments often didn't last long.

The Lions held the first quarter lead at 13-10 while the Hurricane led at halftime 23-22. But, as the second half began, Wilmington fielded a completely different team than the one they showed in the first half.

After suffering through two uneventful quarters, the fans watched as Wilmington reeled off nine unanswered points to take a 34-26 lead late in the third quarter.

The Hurricane broke the game open in the fourth quarter as they had an eight point streak to open a 48-30 lead. Wilmington simply coasted to the win from that point and the buzzer sounded with the Hurricane going away, 64-41.

Williams led all scorers in the game with his 22 tallies. Senior Tony Berlin tossed in 19 points for Wilmington and David Nared, who kept Wilmington in the game in the first half, contributed 13 points.

Washington's Sam McClendon was the only Lion in double figures with 15 points. McClendon has been suffering with an arm injury but it didn't bother him in last night's game.

Perhaps the real key for Wilmington was their containment of the Lions' John Denen. Denen had a bad night shooting and collected only nine points after averaging 26.

Washington's next game will be Friday night against Miami Trace in the Lions' gym.

The Washington C.H. jayvees took an unbelievable 46-45 victory last night from the Wilmington reserves.

The Lions were down 34-26 at the start of the fourth quarter but fought back to take the lead later in the game. Steve Pritchett put the game winning basket in with :02 showing to give the Lions the heart stopping win.

Pritchett led the Lions with 23 points while Tom Bath scored 11 and Dennis Dunn scored 10 points.

Bob Brecha scored 23 for the Hurricane to tie him with Pritchett for the game leadership.

Tigers whip Trace for 'king of jungle'

Record-Herald Sports Writer

EBER, Ohio — When the Tigers from Circleville came to town last night, they left no doubt in the mind of any Panther fan about who is "king of the jungle." Circleville mauled Miami Trace in a key SCOL contest 77-64.

Actually the game was much closer than the final score indicates. At the end of the third period, one slim point separated the two teams as Circleville held a 50-49 lead. But the Tigers proved too much for the Panthers to handle in the fourth quarter as they out scored the home team 27-15 and coasted to the victory.

The win gave Circleville a 2-1 record in the league and 4-1 overall. The loss hurt Miami Trace as they dropped to 1-2 in the league and are now 3-2 in total season play.

The game was evenly matched in the first half as the biggest lead either team could manage was four points. The first quarter came down to a shooting match between the Panther's Art Schlichter and Circleville's Toren Bensonhaver.

Schlichter accounted for 10 of Miami Trace's first quarter total of 15 points. Likewise, Bensonhaver of Circleville had eight of his team's 12.

In the second period, 6-5 senior Brent Wright, who moved into the Circleville district from Frankfort Adena to play the center position, came to life. Wright hit for eight points in that period, most of his points coming from tip-ins or close-in jump shots. Wright was a definite figure in the Circleville victory due to his height and ability to pull down rebounds both offensively and defensively, as well as score points.

The first half of play ended with Circleville holding a 36-32 lead. But the first 16 minutes of basketball was anything but impressive. There was a total of three technical fouls. Two were called on the Tigers for unsportsmanlike conduct while on the court. The third one was called against a member of the Miami Trace bench when he vocally disagreed with a referee's decision.

Miami Trace had numerous turnovers that cost them points. Such things as stepping on the base line when throwing the ball in bounds, occurred three times.

Miami Trace fell behind early in the third quarter when Bensonhaver put on a one man show as he scored eight unanswered points for the Tigers. That gave Circleville a 46-36 lead. It looked like the Tigers were going to run away with the game when they held a 50-39 lead late in the third period.

Then Schlichter, along with Dan Gifford and David Glass, ripped off 10 consecutive points to make the score 50-49 at the end of period number three.

In the fourth period it seemed as if Circleville couldn't do anything wrong and Miami Trace couldn't do anything right. There was one point in the final period where Circleville outscored the Panthers 19-6, and from then on it was all downhill for the Tigers. The game ended with Circleville on top 77-64.

The leading scorer for both teams was junior guard Schlichter who hit for 24 points. Schlichter was followed by Wright and Bensonhaver of Circleville who both had 22 points. Frank Merrill

The Miami Trace Panther reserve team lost to the Circleville Tigers in a squeaker 58-47. The game wasn't decided until there were 11 seconds left in the game and Peter Harrison hit both shots of a one-and-one to give Circleville the lead and the victory.

The leading scorer for the game was Harrison of Circleville with 23 points. Teammate Donald Hill threw in 13 for the Tigers.

Todd Delay was the leading man for the Panthers as he hit for 16 while Scott Grooms accounted for 11 points.

Reserve coach Mike Henry was naturally disappointed with the loss, but he felt that both teams played a good ballgame. He also commented "My kids never quit. They are not a bunch of quitters. They will stay in there and fight until the end."

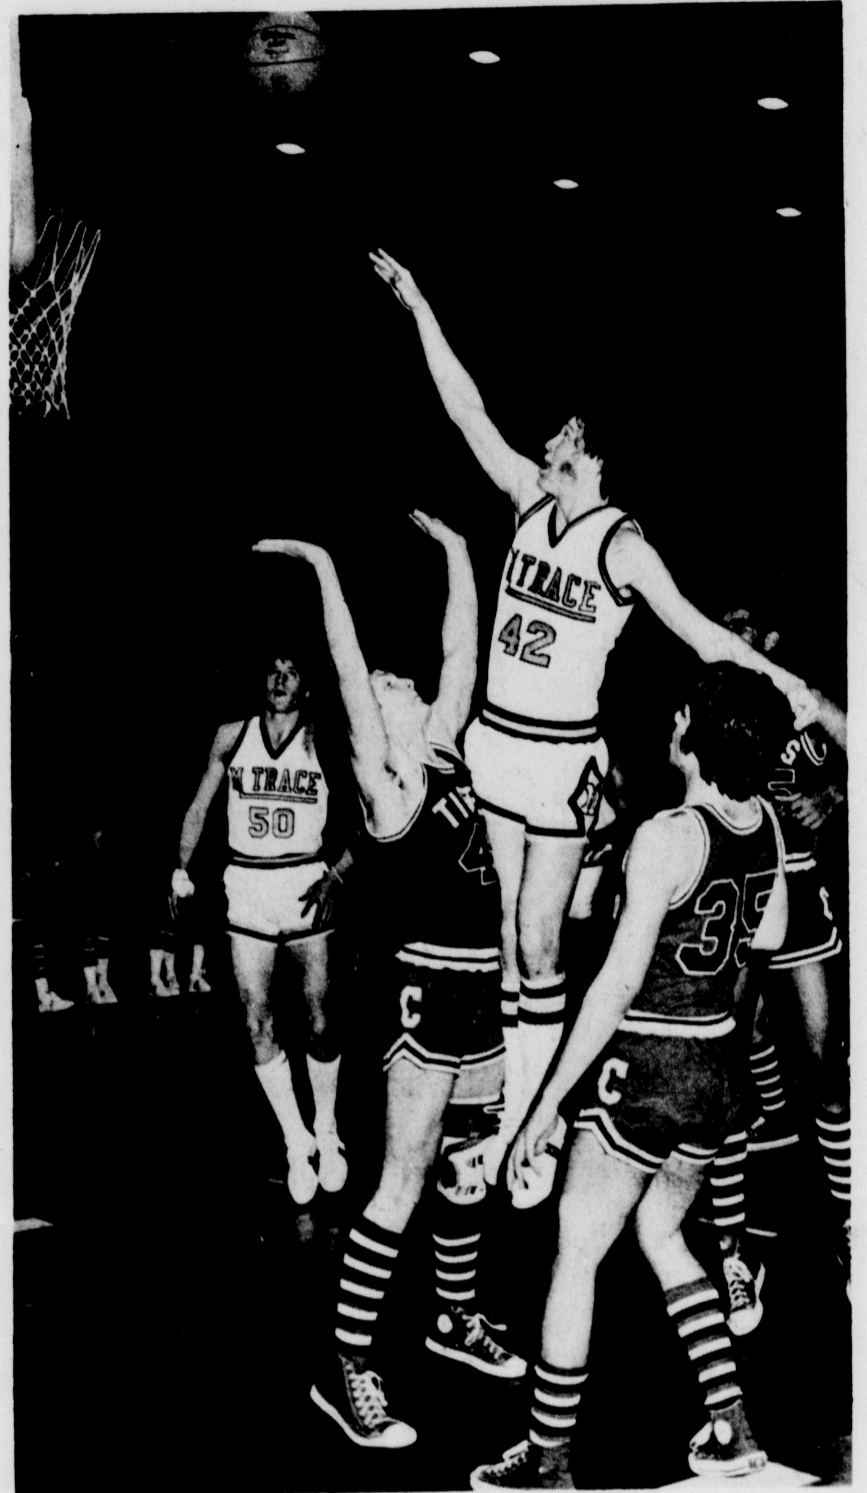

The Panther jayvees play Washington C.H. next Friday night.

also contributed 18 points for the victorious Tigers.

Now the Panthers must prepare themselves for their do or die game with the Washington C.H. Friday night. The game will be played on the WSHS court and the action begins with the reserve contest at 6:30 p.m.

BYE BYE BALL — Joe Black of Miami Trace seems to be waving goodbye to the ball as it heads toward the basket. The Circleville Tigers have Miami Trace fans wanting to say goodbye to last night's game as the Tigers won 77-64.

Buckeyes favored over Colorado

Conferences undefined as football eyes bowl games

HERSCHEL NISSENSON
AP Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — With Arizona and Arizona State mulling invitations to bolt the Western Athletic Conference and join the Pac-8, it is not clear just how many teams still are in the WAC. But two of the leftovers — co-champions Wyoming and Brigham Young, both unranked nationally — will attempt to embarrass the haughty Big Eight on the WAC's behalf for the second year in a row.

The regular season forecasting ended with a 20-4-1 — .833 final week, bringing the record for the year to 538-222-13 — .708. The bowls shape up this way: Fiesta Bowl, No. 8 Oklahoma vs. Wyoming; If they come to play, this will be the biggest mismatch of all the bowls; if they do not, it will not be close, either...Oklahoma 45-14.

Tangerine Bowl, No. 14 Oklahoma State vs. Brigham Young: These clubs hooked up in the Fiesta two years ago with Oklahoma State winning 16-6. No Big Eight embarrassments here, either...Oklahoma State 35-24.

Liberty Bowl, No. 7 UCLA vs. No. 16 Alabama: Bruins blew another shot at the Rose Bowl and will be making their first postseason appearance elsewhere. Alabama, which came on strong, is in its 18th bowl in a row and 30th over-all, both national records...Alabama 24-21.

Gator Bowl, No. 15 Notre Dame vs. No. 20 (tie) Penn State: Pitt's Tony Dorsett started Notre Dame's season off on the wrong foot and ended Penn State's the same way...Notre Dame 17-

10. Peach Bowl, No. 20 (tie) North Carolina vs. Kentucky: The last time Kentucky went to a bowl was a quarter-century ago, a 13-7 Sugar Bowl triumph over Oklahoma...Kentucky 26-14.

Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl, No. 9 Texas Tech vs. No. 13 Nebraska: The Cornhuskers are out to make amends for last year's Fiesta Bowl demise...Nebraska 31-21.

Sun Bowl, No. 10 Texas A&M vs. Florida: One of the great bowl matchups in history between two teams with tremendous penchants for turning something good into a bad scene...Texas A&M 30-13.

Orange Bowl, No. 11 Ohio State vs. No. 12 Colorado. Nothing to say about the national championship; not even a Top Ten team on hand in sunny Florida, just sunny Woody Hayes and his one-time pupil, sunny Bill Mallory...Ohio State 14-7.

Cotton Bowl, No. 4 Maryland vs. No. 6 Houston: Coach Jerry Claiborne claims Maryland is the best team in the country and he is mad the Terrapins have been downgraded so far...Houston 27-20.

Rose Bowl, No. 2 Michigan vs. No. 3 Southern California: "I think the game is for the national championship," says Southern Cal's John Robinson...Southern Cal 21-14.

Sugar Bowl, No. 1 Pittsburgh vs. No. 5 Georgia: Four years ago, Johnny Majors announced he was leaving Iowa State for Pitt and the Cyclones promptly lost to Georgia 31-30 in the Sugar Bowl...Pitt 28-17.

Notre Dame kayos Indiana

By The Associated Press

A "four-corner offense" put the Indiana Hoosiers on the ropes and a "zone" delivered the knockout punch.

That is what it took for Notre Dame to beat the reeling defending national basketball champions 78-65 Tuesday night.

The defeat was the third straight for the No. 16 Hoosiers, their longest losing streak in five years.

Toby Knight, who came off the bench and scored a career-high 23 points, paced the Irish, 6-0. Dave Batton scored 18 points.

All-American Kent Benson led

Indiana with 18 points. Benson did not score during nearly 13 minutes at the start of the game.

Indiana committed 22 turnovers in the first half.

"Notre Dame is a very quick team," Indiana Coach Bobby Knight added. "Duck Williams has quick hands and quick feet."

In other college basketball games Tuesday night, Tom Cutter scored 14 points, leading Western Michigan to a 65-56 victory over Toledo; Alton Byrd fired in 17 points, handed out 10 assists and grabbed eight rebounds, sparking Columbia to a 90-62 decision over Manhattan; Clemson routed Buffalo 98-67 as Wayne "Tree" Rollins and Stan Rome combined for 42 points; Blair Martineau pumped in 28 points, pacing Utah State over Utah 92-90.

Also, Tom Schneberger scored a career-high 28 points, helping Air Force beat Regis College 79-64; Edgar Jones' 21 points led Nevada-Reno past North Dakota State 101-94, and Greg Ballard tossed in 17 points and grabbed 12 rebounds, leading Oregon to a 61-51 victory over Cal State-Fullerton.

In a doubleheader at the Palestra in Philadelphia, Marty Stahurski's two free throws and a clutch steal started an 8-0 streak that propelled Temple over Navy 55-54 and Princeton defeated Villanova 77-74 as Bob Kleiner made 12 of 12 free throws.

Luis Tiant's parents die

MILTON, Mass. (AP) — On a warm August night in 1975, thousands of baseball fans stood and cheered as Luis E. and Isabel Tiant, parents of Boston Red Sox pitcher Luis Tiant, stood and took a bow.

Tuesday, some 200 friends watched as two bronze colored coffins were placed side by side at Milton Cemetery.

Tiant's father and mother, companions for 36 years, died within three days of each other. Both were 72. The elder Tiant died Friday following a brief illness. His wife died Monday of a heart attack.

Plains leaves Hillsboro in SCOL cellar

Madison Plains beat Hillsboro last night as the Eagles left the Indians all alone in the SCOL basement. Plains now has a 1-2 league record while the Indians are 0-4.

The Eagles got balanced scoring from Doug Sifrit, Tom Richardson, and Gary Self. The trio combined for 41 of the 57 points for Plains in the 57-52 win. Sifrit led all scorers with 17 while Richardson scored 13 and Self tossed in 11.

Tim Fuller led Hillsboro with 14 points followed by Randy Sanders with 12 points and Gary Coffman with 10.

So they never have to travel alone.

Well, why not get them a traveling consultant and companion . . . someone who will always be with them whether they travel by car, plane, bus, ship or train. Someone who will take care of ticket arrangements and hotel reservations for them. Someone who actually knows the fastest or the most scenic way to get to where they're going.

And wouldn't it be nice if this someone could get a stalled car started again . . . change a tire . . . or could even tow your friend or relative to the nearest service station when other car trouble pops up?

What more could you give these special people? Unless, of course, this traveling companion could provide a traffic bail bond, personal accident insurance and even help make sure Ohio and the federal government are instituting sound safety and travel legislation.

That traveling companion is an AAA membership. You can give those special people on your Christmas list an AAA membership for less than you'd spend for most jewelry, tools or clothes. And you would know that your gift would be with them every day of the year, whether they travel across the globe, across the nation or across the street. Whether they are going to work, to school or to the store. . . give the AAA, so they never have to travel alone!

They'll Do It Every Time

Speaking of Your Health...

Lester L. Coleman, M.D.

The Many Causes of Hoarseness

I've been told that hoarseness is one of the signs of cancer. I've been hoarse for more than three months and even though a throat specialist hasn't found any trouble with my voice box, I'm still concerned. — Mr. J. L., Ohio

Dear Mr. L.: You have been "told" wrong. Whoever it was who told you that hoarseness is always a sign of cancer did you an injustice by introducing this idea in your head.

Let me see if I can't set you straight. Hoarseness, like pain or fever, is the body's way of calling attention to special needs for help.

Not all hoarseness is caused by cancer. In fact, not more than a small fraction of cases of hoarseness are attributed to any serious trouble.

The vocal cords are two strands of muscle tissue about an inch long. They lie in the voice box, or larynx, in the neck. When one speaks, the vocal cords come together. They separate while breathing. One cannot speak and breathe at the same time.

Anything that interferes with the vocal cords coming together in tight contact can cause hoarseness. Temporary swelling during a cold, allergic reactions, vocal abuse, nodules, polyps and tumors can all produce hoarseness.

Tobacco, especially cigarette smoking, is a particular offender.

Examination of the larynx, known as "laryngoscopy," can readily establish the presence or absence of any disease or impaired motion of the vocal cords. This apparently was done for you. Therefore you should feel reassured.

Certainly, if the hoarseness persists you should be examined at regular intervals for the added assurance you obviously need.

Can a severe fright turn the hair suddenly white? — Mrs. G. W., Iowa

Dear Mrs. W.: Every doctor has been told by some patient that fright, or a calamity, or a severe emotional upset has been responsible for suddenly turning the hair white.

Perhaps it is true, but there is no real scientific basis for it. Some drugs can hurry the graying process and give the impression of suddenness.

Severe illnesses and malnutrition can give the same impression. The pigment-producing cells at the root of the hair can, perhaps, be affected by fright. Even if this did happen the hair itself would not suddenly lose all its pigment and turn white.

Youth Activities

BROWNIE TROOP 877

Girls in Brownie Troop 877 met recently at Jasper School, with Lisa Gorman in charge. The girls repeated the Brownie Promise and the Pledge to the flag. All collected the Brownie dues.

Following refreshments, the girls had a craft session, continuing the work on the craft which will be completed in the next two weeks. They then sang Christmas songs.

Lisa Gorman led the closing with the Brownie B's.

GIRL SCOUTS

Girl Scout Troop 877 met at the Milledgeville School with Nikki Williamson in charge. The Pledge to the flag and the Brownie Promise were used in the opening of the meeting.

Girls continued working on craft, which has been started three weeks ago. They sprayed the craft at this meeting, then sang Christmas songs. They also made plans for the Christmas party.

Nikki Williamson closed the meeting with the Brownie B's.

Toledo school funding crisis worse in '77

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — The Toledo school board, in the midst of a 13-day school closing because of a $3.5 million budget deficit, instructed its superintendent Tuesday to propose savings for next year's budget.

That document projects an even larger deficit than this year's.

Supt. Frank Dick was told to draw up a list of "economies and cuts" that would not affect basic education programs or the district's contract with unions.

The board had been reluctant to consider cuts because it wanted to preserve the level and extent of its programs. Board members, however, admitted that these economies would be only a stopgap measure until a levy increase is approved or another way is found to finance the schools.

On Nov. 2, voters rejected a 7.7-mill tax increase, the third time in a year that a levy increase had been defeated. This forced the board to close the schools after Dec. 3 until Jan. 3.

The board was told at a special session—held at a city branch library because the school administration building along with the schools was closed—that keeping the existing programs and personnel at the same level as this year would result in nearly a $13 million deficit in 1977.

Board President Dr. Robert Jackson said the board either has to make some cuts or it will have to shut down as early as October next year.

But school board member Genie Waggoner said that school patrons want economies but don't want to see such programs as athletics and bands cut.

Specific measures to save money will be considered at the board's regular meeting next Tuesday.

The $6,000-pupil district is one of seven school districts in the state forced to close early this year because they ran out of money.

The bidding:

North East South West
Pass Pass 4♠ Dble
Opening lead - ten of diamonds.

Here is a practical problem. Assume you're West and lead the ten of diamonds against four spades doubled. Dummy plays the three, East the seven, and South the king.

Declarer leads the ten of spades, which you win with the king. When you play the nine of diamonds, everyone follows low. South ruffs the next diamond and plays the jack of spades, which you win with the ace as East discards a heart.

You have now reached the critical point of the play, and whether you beat the contract two tricks (500 points) or one trick (200 points) depends on what you do next.

Let's suppose you led your last diamond, which seems to be the natural thing to do. Declarer ruffs and runs all his trumps, forcing you to come down to three cards — presumably the ace of hearts and K-J of clubs. He then leads a heart and you are compelled to return a club to declarer's A-Q for down one.

Now let's go back to trick five when you win the second trump lead with the ace. By this time you know that South started with precisely eight spades and two diamonds.

It is reasonable to assume that one of declarer's three unknown cards is the ace of clubs. However, the other two cards cannot be determined with certainty. If you assume that South has the ace of clubs singleton, which means he has a doubleton heart, you cannot stop him from making nine tricks.

But if you assume that South has a singleton heart, there is a sure way to beat him two tricks. In line with this, you cash the ace of hearts before playing the fourth round of diamonds. You later get a club trick, and the reward for your careful reasoning is that you collect the maximum penalty — 500 points.

New austerity plan slated in Britain

LONDON (AP) — Chancellor of the Exchequer Denis Healey was expected to announce a second $1.6-billion cut in government spending and higher sales taxes today in order to get a $3.9-billion loan from the International Monetary Fund (IMF).

Along with his austerity interim budget, the Labor government's financial chief was also expected to tell the House of Commons that the government was selling a large part of its stock in British Petroleum (BP) to raise $800 million.

The government slashed public spending $1.6 billion five months ago, but this did little to halt Britain's economic slide. The new cuts will hit a wide range of government programs, including welfare, housing, health and transportation. Leftwing Laborites and the trade unions oppose the cuts, contending that they will mean more unemployment.

Britain is suffering its gravest economic crisis since the great depression of the 1930s. The country is deep in the red. There are about 1.2 million unemployed. Industry is stagnant. Inflation is still rampant, and the pound has been driven below $1.70.

The IMF originally told the government it would have to cut government spending about $4.8 billion to get the loan it wants. But Prime Minister James Callaghan and Healey insisted the British public would not put up with that much austerity.

The IMF agreed to scale down its demands but said Britain must try harder to balance its books, even if it means lower living standards.

Oil drums spin for electricity

CARBON HILL, Ill. (AP) — John Jacklich hopes to have his "oil drums in the sky" spinning homemade electricity by spring.

"They laughed at Edison and the Wright Brothers. If they want to laugh at 'John's Energy Plant' let 'em," says the retired home remodeler and contractor.

The contraption consists of sixteen 55-gallon oil drums, cut in halves and mounted on a lattice-work of pipe. The drums, on swivels, capture the air and rotate a vertical column of 8-inch pipe.

The apparatus is 26 feet in diameter and 21 feet high, and its drive mechanism operates a generator. It cost Jacklich, 63, about $5,000.
